

2021 REVIVAL NOW! CONFERENCE – WORDS FROM THE LORD

THE ART OF SEEKING GOD 210425a 10 a.m.

There is a dimension of My love and My Presence that few in My Church today have ever experienced, but that is changing even this time because, you see, over the centuries, the art of seeking Me has generally been lost upon My Church. Yet those who have been digging diligently into My Word and into My Presence to fellowship with Me and My Spirit are rediscovering this dimension of Me, this special, unique method of pressing into Me. It is not a secret; it is revealed in My Word. But too many in My Church have been trained to sit and wait and do nothing.

Yes, I know in My Word it says be still and know that I am God. There is a time for that, but too many in My Church have come to the place of expecting Me to do something, to move mightily, to release My glory, My power while they do nothing, while they do not seek Me, while they do not press into Me. I want you to know it does not work that way, for if you study the life of My Son Jesus, you will see there were times when He separated Himself to get into My Presence. There was a reason for that. And you saw the results of it as He began to minister to the people not only in signs, wonders, healings, and demonstrations of My power but also in what He said. For if you remember, He said that He did not speak of Himself but only those things that I wanted Him to speak.

Even He needed to press into Me. This would come as a shock to many of My children. It is as though they believe that My Son Jesus never needed to pursue My Presence, but yet I want you to remember that not only was He Jesus Christ the Son of God, but He was Jesus the Son of man. And as Jesus the Son of man, He needed to press into Me. He set the example for this, and I say unto you, follow that example. And if you do, the time will come when you will press into a dimension of My Presence and My glory in the same way that Jesus did.

I want to move through you to others the way I moved through Him to others. You are a joint heir with Him. That includes inheriting the right for Me to move through you as I did through Him. For did He not say that if you believed in Him, the works that He did you would do also? So, continue to press into Me. Continue to seek Me. Do not feel like it is wasted time. Do not feel like all hope is lost.

Continue to seek Me; continue to press into Me. Those of you who have, you are at a place with Me where you have never been. You do not feel it physically or emotionally, but spiritually you are there. Continue on this path. Continue in this direction, and you will see Me move. You will see Me move through you in ways that you did not think were possible. But I say to you, you are My chosen vessels. It is My desire to work through you, so continue on this path. Continue to seek Me; continue to press into Me, and know the greatness of My glory and My Presence and My move, says the Lord.

DO NOT TURN TO YOUR WEAKNESSES 210425b 6 p.m.

Right now, we just release Your virtue, Lord. Those who have come to this conference, those who are watching the conference, those who are watching now, those who will watch tomorrow, we release the power of God, Lord, that there is no weak and sickly among us; that there is no weak and sickly among us; that there is no weak and sickly among us.

These things may sound fantastic to the mind, but Lord, this is the hour to go past anything that is an argument from the soul. And in the Name of Jesus, those who are here in this conference, those who are watching, those who will be a part of it this week, that they are not suffering with agonizing pain, and they are not suffering in their bodies, we release the virtue of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Do not say in your heart, says the Lord, “This thing has been here a long time, and I must fight it myself. I must war and do this with the long hours of petition and confession.” Yes, that will work, but believe Me now, says the Spirit of Grace, for instantaneous results. Believe Me now that the price paid at the cross was enough. And even as you have stood in faith, believe for the hour; believe for the present; believe for the Word spoken to you present tense, says the Lord. You will see an ease in your body. You will see an ease in your emotions, says the Spirit of the Lord.

For the enemy that has come to say to you that this thing will not be reconciled; it will not be healed, know this, that everything that is fighting for that purpose is to divert you from your assignment, says the Spirit of the Lord. But each one of you, nestle in to the Presence of God. Get in a place this week of knowing that I am the Lord who heals you, and I am the Lord who is pleased with you for being in this place or tuning in to these services. I am thrilled, says the Spirit of the Lord, that you are part of this.

I pronounce on you the blessings of the revivalist, those going forward and those being a part of this latter-day movement, says the Lord. Stand fast in these days. Rejoice in where you are at. Know that there is so much more to be had, but rejoice with an expectation of where you are at and where I am taking you, says the Lord.

Those of yesteryear who came to a place where great things were done so that you speak of them now as in history, to say what great things were done then—those then were feeling My pleasure. So I say unto you, take upon yourself that same pleasure. I christened them with a pleasure to know that they were in the center of My will as they gravitated to that place, knowing that they were a part of something that I was doing. So, know this, that in your expectation there is a place of pleasure that I will pronounce on you, and I have, says the Spirit of the Lord. So take this pleasure into your rest; take this pleasure into your waking; take this pleasure as you enter into My house with thanksgiving and into My courts with praise.

Expect, expect. Do not turn to your weaknesses; do not list them by number, but rather know that I am there in grace to change those things as you go forward in Me, says the Lord. But rather take the hour, take the season, take the week, take that which you have set aside and I have set aside for the purpose of bringing forth this revelation that revival is now, says the Spirit of the Lord.

CHANGE IS ON THE MOUNTAIN (prophetic song during worship) 210426a

Oh, My people, I am taking you up. I am taking you up.
I am taking you up. I am taking you up.
I am taking you up the mountain to be with Me.
I am taking you up. I am taking you up.

I am taking you up, up the mountain, up the mountain to be with Me.
Because that is where the change is.
That is where the victory is.
That is where My Presence is.
Only unlike the saints of old, you can now see My face.
Oh, so just gaze upon Me.
Just gaze upon Me.
Come up higher and higher and higher and higher with Me.
Oh, come up higher and higher and higher and higher with Me.
Oh, come up higher and higher and higher and higher with Me.
Jesus, it's Your face we kiss on.
It's Your face we see.

THE INCENSE OF WORSHIP 210426b 7pm

As in the early days of the tabernacle that I instructed Moses to build in the wilderness, and the incense began to arise from before the Holy of Holies—with great pleasure I received those first burnings of incense representing the worship and the prayers of My people. But even then, I sought for the day when I would have My own children on the earth born of My Spirit, who could offer up the incense of true worship in spirit and in truth.

And know this day, your worship arises, arises to Me and brings Me pleasure, brings Me joy, and I look with great favor upon you all. And know this: there are oceans, oceans in front of you, depths of My treasures, depths of My riches that have been untapped for many centuries. But know this, know this: you shall walk upon these waters. You shall walk upon these waters, and the very treasures of Mine shall be yours, and the earth will be blessed and saved and healed, for I am the Lord thy God.

YOU WILL KNOW MY VOICE 210426C 7pm

My voice shall become very precious to each of you. My sheep do hear My voice, and each of you is in a mode of training. And I am speaking not only to those in this room but all that join either today or even in the future by watching at a later date. I am training you now, says the Lord, to hear My voice in a way that is beyond anything you have walked in, in the past. It will be as your Friend.

I will walk with you as your best Friend, the One you confide in, the One that you trust with your deepest, darkest secrets. I have already seen you at your worst, and I love you, says the Lord. I love you. You have already shown Me that you will obey what I say, and even when you hesitate to obey what I say, it is because, most of the time, that you are not sure that it was Me. But as you continue on this path, you will come to such an intimacy with Me, you will know My voice more than you know the voice of your spouse, better than you know the voice of your closest friend. My sheep know My voice, says the Lord.

THE BEGINNING OF INTIMACY 210427 7pm

When we were worshipping, at one point the Lord actually showed me that we were right in that chamber, and that we were actually kissing Him and He was kissing us and that for those who allowed it tonight, this is like the beginning of this intimacy that is just not going to stop.

ENGAGING THE ENEMY WITH WORSHIP 210428 7pm

Just like My Word fitly spoke in due season, out of the unction of the Spirit, becomes the sword of the Spirit, understand this: the true worship from the saints will also produce the sword of the Spirit that pierces the darkness, that begins to hold a place, a preeminence stronger than anything that could possibly come against the Church, corporately or individually. I am calling you, in these days now and in the days to come, to perfect that place that has already been given in you to bring forth the sword of the Spirit prophetically in your services.

Prepare the way. I have provided the way, and even as I have provided the way in the Spirit, now I am asking you as ambassadors over your cities and over your states to worship Me and to bring forth the high praises in your mouth and a two-edged sword in your hand, says the Spirit of the Lord, to execute vengeance in this day and hour.

Your vengeance will not be that upon people but upon the principalities over regions and over places that have held a garrison over them for many, many decades. And as My worshippers come forth in these places and in private worship and in these places of corporate worship which facilitates and brings forth the sword of the Spirit over your region, know this, that what you cannot see in the natural, that much is taking place in the Spirit, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Angel armies are released as you worship Me. As you magnify Me in spirit, more is going on than what you can possibly imagine, says the Spirit of the Lord. Do not grow weary in well doing in these services and these types of times of worship, for not only am I setting the stage for the present-tense atmosphere, but your prayers over a region are being answered.

As you draw the sword of the Spirit as you execute vengeance, much is being accomplished. And much of the harvest is dependent upon this, says the Spirit of the Lord. Much of the harvest is dependent upon this, so rejoice when you come together in these settings, knowing this, that not only are you having an effect upon the atmosphere of the present tense, but what exudes past these walls, these times is what will come into the city and what will draw the masses, what will allow Me to execute a power over them and set them free. The blinders come off and there comes a longing, an urge within their spirits to come to this place, yes, even to this very location, and others who seek Me as well—I will magnetize them. I will place something within them as if it were a compass that begins to draw them nearer and nearer.

They will meet people; they will meet people twice and three times removed that will introduce them to another, that will introduce them to another, that will introduce them to another, that will introduce them to this place. I will work a work among you that will amaze you, says the Spirit of the Lord. While you do these things that seem to be only for the moment, know that it goes way beyond the moment and the hour. So, worship Me in these things and understand My plan, not only for your life but for this city, says the Spirit of the Lord.

GOING FORWARD WITH GOD'S PRESENCE 210430

The Lord says this conference is not coming to a conclusion; it has been an introduction, an introduction to where I want to take you, an introduction to how you can get there.

This conference is not coming to a conclusion. It is My desire that My Presence in this conference will continue with you and that you will go forward from this point. This is not the end; for so many, this is a new beginning. Do not look at this as the conclusion. Look at this as a launching point for many of you into deeper realms of My Presence and My Spirit.

Do not leave thinking, "Well, that was great! What a wonderful week!" and then assume that I have finished, for I have not finished. I will continue to work in you if you will let Me, but you must do those things that you have heard this week. If you do, you will experience great change.

Do not see yourself as isolated. This has been further training; all this week, it has been further training. There are very, very few of you who really understand what has been happening. I am preparing to use you in ways that you have never been used, that you do not anticipate.

I love you, but I grow weary of you continually looking down on yourself. Will you please stop it? Will you please capture My vision of you? You are not a loser, and you are not unusable. You have been here all this week, and I have been working in you continual preparation for what I want to do. Too many of you have allowed the world to define for you who you are, what you are, and what you can do. You need to spend time with Me, with the Holy Spirit, with My Word, and in My Presence to see that change. Your perception of you needs to be changed. You do not understand the magnitude of what I am trying to do in your life.

Do you realize there are very, very few conferences like these in the world? My desire is that they exist everywhere, but they don't. You need to understand, this is very rare. But I am moving. Do not forget what My Son accomplished with only twelve apostles. Do not forget what I began with only 120 in that upper room. You need to see yourself as equally usable as the twelve apostles, as the seventy who were sent out afterward, as the 120 in that upper room.

You are the present-day 120, and I will use you just like I used them if you will let Me. There is much, much more that you are going to be taught about these things. That is coming in the future, but for now, do not see this conference as concluding; see it as a beginning in your life, says the Lord.
