What Is Coming

The time is short, so short—much shorter than you realize. Things are happening in the Spirit that cannot be seen with the mortal eye. Things are happening rapidly. I have said in My Word that the Holy Spirit will show you things to come, and He does this through vessels who hear His voice. He does not speak of Himself but only that which He hears. His voice is My voice. When He speaks, I am speaking. Hear My words and know that I am moving.

I told you not long ago, less than one year ago, that a new voice would rise within your country. I said it would not be a “new” voice, but one that would be new to most people. I told you that it would be a charming voice, one which would sound pleasing and acceptable. But I also told you it was a voice of evil and deception, a voice not to be trusted.

You have heard that voice. Those of you who have watched your news have seen this person. This voice has spoken words of unity, but they cloak disaster. This voice has already begun to penetrate the hearts and minds of both the lost and My Church. This voice has begun appealing to many. There are those in My Church who are dull of hearing and spiritually numb, and they would vote for this person today to put him into the White House.

The enemy’s plan to move this person into great prominence has been masterful. He has moved slowly, yet methodically, to raise this person up. On the surface, this person does not appear to be evil, and says things which sound so right. But the words are planned and calculated, often crafted by the enemy himself.

I am warning you now that this country is headed for a severe testing. If My Church does not pray and seek My direction for the coming elections, there will be great suffering. The most recent elections must be viewed as warnings of what is to come if My Church is not sensitive to Me and votes the way I desire. I will not put a person in office of My own accord; you are the ones who vote. If you do not guard yourselves and listen to Me, the wrong people will be elected and much of this country will be handed over to Satan.

My Son warned that in the last days false prophets would arise. This is happening now and is even increasing. Let Me tell you how this is happening. Just as I do not raise up My own prophets unless they are hearing from Me and have gone through a time of spiritual preparation, false prophets will not arise until they have gone through a season of preparation.

The preparation of a false prophet is well-developed by the enemy. He starts very slowly and tests the waters of an individual’s character and spiritual stability. He carefully observes what I am doing in a person’s life and tries to counterfeit My moving for the purpose of deceiving that person. He closely observes that person’s reactions to the counterfeit to see how far he can take that person into the next level of deception.

Over time, he is able to lead this person further and further away from truth with that which is a lie but is now accepted as truth. The enemy is not able to manufacture a calling, but can take advantage of the calling I have placed upon a person. Through this process of deception the enemy is able to get this person operating by a false anointing. There are times when this person will minister according to truth, My truth, and then minister according to deception. This is how even the very elect can be deceived.

These false prophets are slowly but surely increasing in your midst. My heart is breaking because I am watching more and more of My children take steps in the direction of the deceiving words of these false prophets. Some of you hearing these words now have heard the voices of at least one false prophet.

Guard your heart now! For I tell you that in the coming year the works of these false prophets are going to accelerate. Stop wasting your time searching the television for preacher after preacher. Many of you have allowed soiled seed to be sown into your hearts, and it has begun to have an impact on your walk with Me. You have allowed confusion to be sown into your life. You are allowing your doctrine and the path of your life to be established by the words of those who have not heard Me in the way they proclaim.

As My Son said, if it is possible, even the very elect will be deceived. Yet in His words is the revelation that you can make it possible not to be deceived. In and of yourselves you are all able to be deceived; there are no exceptions. But if you follow the instructions I have given in My Word, you can fortify yourselves spiritually and defend yourselves against deception. My Son was not deceived, and does not My Word say you can conform to the same image of His glory? My servant, the Apostle Paul, was not deceived, for had he been, I could not have spoken through him to write so much Scripture. In fact, it is through some of his writings that I give instructions on how you can protect yourselves against deception.

Again I say, guard your heart now! For those who are weak spiritually are candidates for deception. There are homes which will be divided because of this deception. Ministries will take stands against each other. Those who once spoke truth will speak more and more deception. I am watching now as many of My children are being led astray. So again, guard your heart and strengthen yourself in the Spirit to stand firm to the end.

Be very cautious about how you spend your money in the months to come. Focus on getting out of debt instead of sinking deeper into debt. A natural disaster is coming in the next year which will have an economic impact. There will be a ripple effect in many sectors. Many lives are going to be lost in this disaster. Be forewarned that what you see on Wall Street, the Dow Jones Averages, are deceptive. The economy looks good, but it is just a sugar-coating that is covering a sour situation. Your economy was sold out many years ago, and the effect has been growing. Prepare yourself and use wisdom with your finances.

I told you not long ago that another terrorist attack is in the planning for this country. There are stockpiles of weapons being readied. What you do not know, and what has not been revealed to the people of this nation, is that your security agencies have already stopped other attacks. There are many things kept secret, but victories are being won.

Pray for the plans of the enemy to be revealed. It is not needful for all the citizens to know of these plans, just those who can intervene. I tell you that if you pray, attacks can be averted.

There is going to be great upheaval in the Middle East. If you think closely to what has happened in the past year, much more conflict has arisen beyond that which you see in Iraq. But these other flashpoints have been buried in the back pages of your newspapers while the situation in Iraq has been the focus.

Israel is going to face another crisis. There are plans being formulated this moment to try and put Israel in a no-win situation. If these plans are allowed to come forth and not stopped through prayer, Israel will act in its own national interests and preservation. Their actions will be decried by many, including many in the political arena in this nation.

The things that have happened in Iraq have been a diversion by the enemy. Do you not think it strange that once military action began in Iraq, it was not long before Saddam Hussein was captured? Do you not think he could have escaped and even left his country under cover of night? I tell you, he was not “discovered” as many would think: he was handed over by the god he worshipped; he was sacrificed by the devil because he had lost his usefulness.

Satan has worked hard to bring about this diversion in Iraq. This diversion will allow him to manipulate the international political scene for the purpose of raising up the Antichrist. If this diversion were not taking place, many of the things which are now happening would draw too much attention. Political figures are moving to establish their power. When the time is right, these positionings will come to light. Alliances are being established. National boundaries are beginning to fade. Nations will begin to allow leaders from other countries to dictate policies. But there is no alarm over this while the diversion is happening. However, when the time is right the diversion will settle down for a season. By then, the political strongholds will be in place and some people will wonder, “How did this happen?”

But I say unto you, heed the words of My Son and let not your heart be troubled and neither let it be afraid. I will see you through. I will be your Strength and your Peace. I will be your Sword and your Shield. I will be your ever-present Help in times of trouble.

As you have seen, I am cleaning My house. Just as My Son used a whip to drive out the money changers, I am using the whip of My glory and anointing to purge My house. Have I not said in My Word that I am the Judge, and I put one down and raise up another? I speak to the hearts of those in error and sin. The day has come that if they do not repent in secret with Me, I will drag them out before the world.

I have said in My Word that you are to be holy as I am holy. I say to you now, repent of your sin and follow the path of holiness. My judgment will pass from the pulpit to the pews, and none will escape being held accountable. Sexual sins, financial improprieties, self-ambitions, and many other things will be brought to light in the days to come.

A great army is being raised up in the Spirit. I have mighty warriors in training even now. Man's religion has defined for you what a great ministry is, but I say that such a definition is flawed. To Me, a great ministry is that where the one called obeys My Word, is not seeking self-promotion but is seeking the promotion of the Kingdom, who loves Me more than anything or anyone, and is not concerned or captured by the affairs of this life.

You have been trained to judge a ministry by the size of the filled arenas and members in the congregations. But it would amaze you how many of the so-called "mega-churches" and large ministries have not been built with My anointing but have been built with human ingenuity. Slick programming and planning have developed much of what you see. I am not saying that the heads of those ministries or those pastoring such churches do not love Me, however, they have been caught up in man's way of doing things.

My army has been in training for a long time. Your enemy has not been acutely aware of what has been going on. For when My prophet Elijah cried out to Me thinking he was all alone, I told him I had reserved 7,000 unto Myself who had not bowed their knee to Baal. Those 7,000 were hidden away by Me in preparation for the day that they should be brought forth.

In the same way, I have held in reserve thousands upon thousands who have been in training and preparation. They have been in the caves of their prayer closets seeking My face. They have not sought to grow their churches or ministries, only to serve Me. They are becoming storehouses of My glory and anointing.

I have begun bringing them forth and they are creating great disturbances in the realm of the Spirit. Strongholds of the enemy which have been in place for years, decades and even centuries, are coming down. The enemy has been caught off guard by the intensity of this move. He knew people were seeking Me, but since he cannot see their hearts, he did not know the extent to which they had entered My Presence.

There is great warfare taking place as those clad in the fullness of My spiritual armor are taking back ground in large portions. Not all in My army have been released into the battle. They will be released in waves in a strategic manner that will confound the camp of the enemy. He will not know where the next attack is going to be launched.

Many in My church will live their lives oblivious to what is happening. They have settled into a pattern of religion while they await the return of My Son. Many of the large ministries and mega-churches will conduct their religious business as usual: selling their gimmicks to raise money, crying and laughing together on each other's TV programs, prophesying whatever will bring in the most offerings, and missing out on what I am really doing. I love them all and recognize that they truly believe they are serving Me, yet they have missed the real reason I have called them.

Some in My army will lose their lives in this war. But they will be received into My Presence with great reward and rejoicing. But for each one who dies, ten more will be released to carry on. For just as the enemy has been planning his moves in these last days, I have been planning Mine. And I would remind you of this: I know all of the enemy's plans, but he knows none of Mine.

What I am telling you is that the very beginning stages of revival have begun. In the natural, there has been no great fanfare, and this has essentially gone unnoticed. But that is the way I planned it, for in this revival, man will not get the glory, and those in My army will not seek it. For have I not said in My Word that the glory is Mine?

I have not limited the number of those who will be in this army. Many will see what is happening and will choose to commit and consecrate themselves totally unto Me. I will then be able to use them in My army. To those who desire that I use them this way, I would say sell out to Me and make your life with Me the priority. Have I not said in My Word that I will replace whatever you feel you lose as you seek Me?

Because of the way this warfare has begun, millions will be brought into My Kingdom. Masses will be swept into salvation, because the enemy will have been caught off guard. Even though he may hear the words of this message, it will do him no good, for he cannot see into My heart and he does not know My mind. Oh, I laugh even now at the futility of his efforts to stop Me. Yes, the sound of My laughter is resounding throughout Heaven in a way that brings depths of joy to those who are here. I see the victories that are about to take place, and I am excited because My glory is going to be seen throughout the world!

So take heed to what I have said. Turn to Me for your strength and peace. Make Me your first love. Allow Me to work in you My perfect plan. I will release into you abundant glory and anointing. You will hear My voice. You will know My Presence. You will sit in the midst of My love. You will know Me as your Father and feel the eternal confidence of being My child.

The Lord in the Home

The Lord has a word for some people who have been experiencing some strife in their homes. And He says part of the problem is that you are so concerned about being right.

If you would spend more time seeking Me and allowing Me to be the Lord both of your life and your home, you would see this strife diminish. Sometimes your passion and your emotions rise up so strongly because you just know that you are right and the other person is wrong. I would have you know that sometimes both of you are wrong.

Stop worrying about being right, even when you are. Stop continually trying to exert yourself in being right. Let Me be the Lord of your home. Turn all this over to Me. Allow Me to minister in you and strengthen you to know when to be silent.

Speak to Me instead of your spouse and let Me mend the problems. For I will do this if you let Me.

Sitting in His Presence

There are many of My children who believe that in order to truly be in My Presence, to experience Me, they must be praising Me and worshipping Me; they must be praying with the understanding or in the Spirit; they must be speaking My Word, meditating in it, confessing it. But I say unto you that you can receive much from Me by simply sitting in My Presence. No words have to be spoken. No praise, no worship has to be lifted up. No prayers have to cross your lips.

For you see, I have declared in My Word that I am a Spirit, and in the atmosphere of My Presence, as you just sit there in silence experiencing My Presence, I can release into you anointing, deliverance, healing—whatever you are seeking, it can be sown into you.

I can sow change into your life just by you sitting in My Presence. This is something that has escaped My Church. For there were times when those whom I had called, those you read about in the book of Acts, they just sat in My Presence; they just experienced Me, and I was able to release into them things that they did not know were being released. And then later, that which I had deposited into them would begin to come forth and it would begin to manifest.

The same is true for you. Do not always feel that you have to praise and worship Me all the time that you are in My Presence. Do not feel that you have to be in prayer the whole time that you are in My Presence. There are times for you to just sit and experience Me, to just sit and let Me minister to you, strengthen you, give you My joy, give you My peace. For you see, I long to be in your Presence as much as I long for you to be in Mine. So learn from this and know that it is fully acceptable unto Me for you to come and just sit in My Presence and let Me minister to you.

The Wisdom of Giving

I was praying about what to share as far as the offering is concerned. And as I was praying, it was like I saw at least one man and he was walking by a door, and this door, it wasn't a normal door; it looked like a big vault, and he was trying to figure out how to get in it. In other words, he wasn't just standing there looking at it, but he was walking by, and in his mind, I knew he was figuring out how he could get in there. What key was it going to take to get into that, to get to the other side, to get through that door? And the Lord began to speak to Me, and I want to share this with you.

There is a key to accessing wealth that My Church has not yet discovered. That key is walking in My wisdom and in My ways, for have I not said in My Word that My ways are higher than your ways? This means that when you are walking in My ways, you are walking above the standards of the world when it comes to finances and the way they are accessed and accumulated. When you are walking in My ways, you are walking above lack, for walking in My ways means being able to access provisions for all you need.

Have I not said in My Word that I am able to make all grace abound toward you so that you have all sufficiency for all things? I can even show you how to get things in this life simply for your own pleasure while you serve Me, for I am your Father and I take pleasure in the joy of My children.

When you walk in My ways, you will be able to touch wealth in a way that makes no sense to the world. You will be able to see a flow of provision into your life that goes against the methods of Wall Street. When you walk in My ways and wisdom, you will have the keys to open the door of My grace that leads into a room of great blessing. When you walk in My ways and My wisdom, you will not consume wealth on yourself, yet I will give you permission to have things for your pleasure.

Come unto Me, believe My words that when you commit to seek Me, you will be able to step into the flow of My ways, My wisdom, and My grace to see needs met in what the world would call supernatural fashion but which to Me in My Kingdom is a natural way of living.

As I'm seeing this, as He's giving me this word and it's getting toward the end of it, talking about seeking Him, what I saw, Christians that do not seek Him, they don't get into His Presence. One of the things that many Christians are seeking for is power when they get into His Presence, and it's not so much power—we should be seeking His Presence when we get into His Presence. In other words, seeking Him to receive from Him what He wants us to receive instead of going in with a predetermined agenda, as in "I'm going in to get more power." We go in knowing more power is going to be there but also an understanding of like in this word, an understanding of His ways and His wisdom to be able to walk in that grace and begin to access the provision and the wealth and so forth.

And what He began to show me was that if Christians would do this, He would be able to guide their steps in a direction that can produce money and things in a way that doesn't make any sense whatsoever, because people typically work so hard and we look for ideas that make our job better, ideas to improve to make more sales, whatever it is that we do. It's like God was saying that it's not that all those things are bad, He was showing me there's a higher way to do this. There's a better way to do this.

For example in a sales job, instead of wracking your brains to come up with a plan to get more sales, if you come into My Presence, I can show you how you can end up with more sales by walking in My ways and walking in My wisdom and tapping into My grace.

And this applies to every area of what we do. He can show us a way, and it was like when He said "Have I not said in My Word My ways are higher than yours?" I can see Christians—you know how when you're flying in an airplane, and you look down and you can see a stretch of highway for miles. And the car that's back there that looks like a little grain of sand, it has no idea of what's up ahead on the highway. But up there where we are, we can look down and see everything. And if we see a herd of water buffalo on the highway, we could call that person, if possible, and say "Hey, you need to know there's a herd of water buffalo up ahead, and you need to watch out." We can tell them "You need to turn off at the next exit." In other words we are higher than the standard that person is living at that moment.

And He showed me that if we begin to walk in His ways, His ways are higher, it's like we become elevated above all the standards that the world operates by, and we can see things from His perspective—a Kingdom perspective—and end up doing things that make no sense to the world whatsoever. But it will work because it brings about His promises and provisions into our lives.

Don't focus so much on having to give to make God happy. Just get into His Presence. Yes, we're supposed to give, but if you're worried about "If I don't give He's going to be mad at me" or "I have to give so much or He's going to be mad at me," that's a very low way of living. Give because you love Him and give because you love people and you want people's lives changed. And then seek Him and let Him begin to raise you up, and you start operating by Kingdom methods as opposed to world's methods. Amen.

Receive What You Need From Me

I am moving; I am moving among you. I desire to meet your every need. If you only knew how much I want to meet your need. I love you with a love that I know it is difficult for you to comprehend. I know it is hard, but the more you become intimate with Me, the more you get to know Me, you will understand My love for you in a greater way. And it will be easier for you to receive from Me when you know My character, when you really know Me and know that the plans I have for you to prosper you and not harm you, but [I have] plans that will give you a hope and an expected future.

Intimacy with Me, intimacy with Me will bring that into your life. It will bring understanding that My love for you, the depths of My love, depths of My grace—I love you. I am here to meet your every need. Receive it. Receive what you have need of. Receive what you need from Me. I have everything you need, and I am here to meet your need.

A Family Affair

I am working in your family even now. You have cried unto Me about your family members, but I want you to know that I am working in the midst of your family even right now. I see more than you can see. You see on the outside, but I see on the inside. I know what it will take to reach your family members, and I know what it will take to work in their lives My perfect will. So I say unto you this night, when you pray for them speak My will.

Just as My Son said “Father not my will, but thine, be done,” speak that over the lives of your family members. Speak “Father, not their will, but Your will be done in their lives on earth, as You have planned it in Heaven.” For through that confession, you will enable Me to work in their lives in a very special and unique way. So speak over them like this. Speak over them the desires of My heart, for I am working in your family.

PD070128C – Jan 28, 2007
Complete in Him

The Lord says you will not find your strength in the relationship with another person. You will not find stability in your life in the relationship with another person. For if you seek strength, comfort and security, recognition, stability in your relationships with others, then you are going to miss what I can do in you.

I say look to Me and seek to develop your relationship with Me, for it is out of that relationship with Me that you will find the strength that you need. You will find your sense of self-worth and your sense of self-identity. You will find stabilization in your life out of your relationship with Me.

Seek to strengthen and develop your relationship with Me, for it is in that relationship you will discover everything you are seeking in a relationship with another person. People cannot give to you what I can give to you. People can touch your lives in positive ways, and yes, I have said in My Word when a man finds a wife he finds a good thing. However, when it comes to the fullness of what you are seeking in life, the value of your own life is found in Me. For you will never find true value, strength, or stability in a relationship with another person, not the kind that I can give you. So I say to you this night, stop looking to people. Stop looking to a person to provide for you what I can provide for you. Come to Me. Come to My throne. Come to My Presence. Seek Me and let Me give you everything you feel is missing in your life.

Enlightened to Your Destiny

In the days to come, those who are truly seeking Me, allowing My Spirit to guide them into truth, your eyes are going to be opened more and more to see just how much of My Body is not walking in truth. Your eyes are going to be opened more and more to see the gross error in which many are walking. Your eyes are going to be opened to see more and more just how much wrong doctrine has taken root within My Church. For some of you, you are going to have a feeling of almost helplessness, exasperation. There will be a desire on the inside of you to want to fix it all and yet a frustration of not knowing how.

But I would say unto you that your responsibility is not to fix it. Your responsibility is to stay on the path of truth and speak as I direct you. For you see, there are many, many who are never going to get off the wrong doctrine. They are never going to leave those things which are holding them back, and they are going to walk into eternity clinging to these wrong doctrines. There are some who are going to turn, but in relation to the total number of those in My Church—those who are turning, those who will turn—that number is few.

More and more challenges are coming your way concerning truth. At times you will feel an anger, a fleshly anger, but I would say, do not give in to it. Stay on the path of truth. Become rooted and grounded in the fullness of truth. Even if the attacks are very close to you from people that you know and love, do not let it hinder you. Do not let it drag you into vain arguments which will accomplish nothing. Stay on the path of truth. Walk in My truth. Become established in My truth. For more and more revelation of truth is going to be revealed. Your responsibility is to serve Me, not change others. As you serve Me, I will be your Reward. I will be your Strength, and I will be there to help you.

You will be rejected, rejected by many people. Do not worry about that, just stay on the path of truth. When you do, you will see true miracles, true demonstrations of My mercy, My grace, My healing, My deliverance. You will see the truth, the true move of My Spirit in these last days. So walk triumphant in this life, as more than a conqueror, carrying the shield of faith, My Word and My truth, says the Lord.

Kingdom Service and Promotion

My potential in Christians is beyond all comprehension. People want a structure and order when it comes to serving Me. This is a reasonable thing to ask and desire because there is structure and order in all I do. But the order I establish is based on spiritual principles, not the things of the world. However, most of My children are seeking an order which is natural and makes sense to the mind of the world. This is why so much of the religious structure developed by man cannot truly enable or equip you to serve Me.

The structure and order of My calling on your life is based on the way I operate in the Spirit. Spiritual order does not always parallel the order of things you see in the world. What you are to accomplish for Me is all relative to Kingdom purpose. This is why you must develop a Kingdom mindset in order to truly do My will.

Man's religion has taken My Church and "normalized" it according to the pattern of worldly things. My Church has been turned into a republic, into a democracy, but the order and structure of My Kingdom is defined by its name: a Kingdom with a King. In worldly terms, you call this a monarchy, but in reality, it is a theocracy wherein your King is the eternal King of the ages.

Although you have an eternal will and retain the ability to choose whatever you desire, in My Kingdom this is not so. In My Kingdom, you do not have the right to do whatever you choose; you have the will to make such choices, but you do not have the right. You see, when the King rules, He determines your rights. The Kingdom cannot succeed if the citizens of the Kingdom demand the rights to determine order and exercise their will to accomplish that order.

The plans for My Kingdom were in place from before the foundation of the world. The establishment of My Kingdom became a reality for mankind the moment My Son completed His work on earth. The principles of success in My Kingdom are in operation even at this moment. These principles will never change. I love you and honor what I gave you: the free will to choose your destiny. But operation in My Kingdom is based solely on what I have established in the Spirit.

So many of My children have followed after the pattern of the world. For in the world people demand their rights and demand to be treated in a certain way and demand the freedom to do as they please. But in My Kingdom this does not work. You can demand all you want, but I will not change. You can set up your own form of churches and say they are based on My Word, but I will not change. You can establish your own patterns of religion and call them anointed, but I will not change. You can create your own system of teaching spiritual babies and training them for service unto Me and call it all the pathway of truth, but I will not change.

I have said in My Word to train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Do you think I would have said that if I am not prepared to do it Myself? Do you think I would have said that and not have given to you the way in which you are to train children?

You are thinking in human terms and about human children. But I am thinking about spiritual children. It is My responsibility to train up My children, but most of those who are to instruct My children how to be taught of Me are doing just the opposite: they are instructing them how to be trained and taught of man.

The apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers I use to the fullest are those who have grown and matured in Me. They are continually taught by Me. They are submitted fully to their King and do not allow man to rule their lives and callings. For you see, in man's system, you must bow the knee to what he has created and established.

Those I use to the fullest are those who do not demand their rights, but seek only to do the will of their King. They understand they are sent forth to do the work of their King. They realize their own limitations, but see the limitless potential I afford in them, for have I not said that you can do all things through Christ, your King, who will strengthen you with His anointing?

The order and structure of My Kingdom must be established in you, for I have said that the Kingdom of God is within you. Spiritual maturity translates into promotion in My Kingdom. But again, the order and structure of man which makes so much sense to the mind of the world cannot produce this maturity and promotion.

In the church that man has created, you must “accomplish” to be promoted. You must develop fleshly talent and ability to be promoted. You must earn your degrees in their system to be promoted. You must have numbers and statistics to be promoted. You must work hard and impress people to be promoted. Your potential for success and promotion is based all on what you can do.

In My Kingdom, you must submit to be promoted. You must do those things which will cause you to grow in My eyes, regardless of whether man notices. I do not reward based on what you do the way man rewards; I reward based on how much you conform to My Son and accomplish His works through fulfilling His will.

This is why there is so much strife over praying in the Spirit, private worship, meditation, and confession of My Word, and fasting. While these things are a part of Kingdom structure and order, they make no sense to the minds of those serving man’s church. Most Christians simply cannot fathom that such things can result in great promotion in My Kingdom and a place of honor and reward before Me. A person committed to these things does not get the attention of man, but will greatly capture My attention.

Spiritual maturity produces responsibility in My Kingdom. Those who are negligent in their responsibilities, disregard their commitments, and break their word are not as mature in My sight as they may be in the sight of man. Conforming to the image of My Son means conforming to the order and structure of My Word.

I told you earlier that My potential in Christians is beyond all comprehension. I speak as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I speak as God. You have the potential to demonstrate a Christ-like anointing. As Kingdom citizens I desire to pour Kingdom power through you. I desire to release Kingdom anointing into you. I desire you to be a reflection of your King.

To do this, you must understand that you do not have “rights,” as the world calls it, in My Kingdom. But you do have privileges, and you do have an inheritance. Remember what John the Baptist said, “He must increase, but I must decrease.” As you decrease, you are less and less concerned about your “rights” and more consumed by My life in you. You will no longer see it as an infringement of your “rights” to yield your entire life and everything about you to Me.

The world will take away. Man’s church will take away. I will only cause you to increase, but that increase will be in Me. I am not a tyrant and I am not a dictator. I only have your best interests in My heart and mind. My Son, your King, knows how to govern your life with the love and mercy that led Him to the cross for you.

I tell you this night to reorder your world and way of thinking. Only submit in a godly fashion to those apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers who refuse to compromise My Word and Kingdom principles for the structure and order of man's church, for these leaders will not seek to control your life, but they will earnestly seek to be helpers of your joy and lead you to My throne. These leaders will not teach you to compromise for the kingdom of man but will demand spiritual excellence and truth.

I am waiting to release into you the greatest level of My Presence and glory you have ever experienced. Do not try to define it. Do not try to explain it. Just apply what you know and adhere to Kingdom principles, and you will go beyond anything and everything your mind has ever conceived about Me.

Worship for Your Needs

As you give Me your worship, I am able to give you My Presence. For you see, your worship opens a channel in the realm of the Spirit that I can flow through in no other way. When you give Me your worship, I am able to give you a fullness of My Presence that can bring about literal miracles in your life. For the presence of My glory that I can release to you in that avenue of the Spirit that you create with worship can bring about healing for your body, peace for your soul, and joy for your strength. As you give to Me your worship I am able to give to you a level of My Presence that you can know no other way. For many of My children have cried out hungering and thirsting for Me and asking for more of Me, and I would say to you if you would give yourself over to worship more and more, the very Presence that you are hungering for and seeking will manifest in your life.

Worship is a lost art in My Body. It is a lost art in My Church. The traditions and teachings of man have pushed the truth and the concept and the very essence of pure worship out of the Church and replaced it with religious performance. But I say to you if you will replace the religious performance with the purity of worship that comes forth only from your heart, you will see an explosion of My glory in your midst that is unsurpassed in My Church. For I long to manifest Myself this way in your presence. I long to manifest Myself this way in your churches, and I say to you, the key to experiencing greater glory in your church services for revival is to worship Me, worship Me, worship Me—release it out of your spirit. For when you come together and fellowship in My Presence as a congregation and begin to worship Me collectively in a congregation, I am able to release to you a collective glory that will touch every heart and mind.

So I say this to you to encourage you. Cast down the imaginations, the emotions, the feelings which would hinder you from pouring out your worship. Let your spirit dominate your soul and pour out the worship that will create an avenue in the Spirit that I can flow through and meet you where are.

Trust in Me

You have come to a place in your life where you are more able and ready to trust Me than ever before. You are at a crossroads where you have to make some very tough decisions [whether to] turn to the left, the right, go straight.

The Lord says that if you will reach out and take a hold of His hand that He will lead you in the direction you need to go. He says that this will not be easy because the decision He is going to lead you in means cutting off part of your past, a past that needs to remain there, a past that is currently a part of your present. But He speaks of it as though it is a part of your past, because that is where it needs to be. It is going to require a severing of relationships with one or more persons. He says that you in your own strength, you are not sure you can do this. And He says, But you have reached a point in your life where you can trust Me, and if you will just seek Me, call unto Me, cry out to Me and let Me lead you forward, I will take you into a place with God where you have never been. But it is a place where all of God's blessings and all of God's promises reside—everything that God has set aside for you is in this place where I will take you. Trust Me. Trust Me like you never have before.

Your ears will be filled with the words of those who will want to hold you back, but they do not realize what they are doing. You have relationships with people and with religion that need to be broken. I will empower you to do this. I will lead you forward and I will be your Strength. I will be your Guide. I will be your Protection.

You have felt as though you may lose much if you go in the direction that you think should go. But I want you to know this night that I am your God and that I love you more than those who claim to love you. I love you with a love that cannot be measured by human standards. I love you so much. That is why I am taking this time during this service to say these things to you. No matter what you feel you might lose, as God, I am fully capable to replace it and replace it abundantly, for in My sight, you cannot lose, you can only gain. And I will take you into that place of My Presence to where you will understand and experience My power and My love like never before.

So, trust Me. Trust Me. Please trust Me. Do not worry about what others may say. Trust Me and let Me take you into that place that I have already prepared for you, that place that is waiting for you even this moment. During this night, even in the remainder of this service, I will minister to you about this. So give your heart, your ears unto Me and let Me speak unto you the words of life that will strengthen you for the things you need to do, and do not forget: I will always be there for you. I will never, never leave you, and I will never forsake you. I love you.

PD070221 – Feb 21, 2007
Wisdom for Decisions

My wisdom can only be found in My Presence. You cannot get My wisdom through natural reasoning or natural logic. The things that make sense in the realm of the natural do not work for you in every situation. But I can give you spiritual wisdom that will enable you to make decision in the realm of the natural that will produce success in your life according to My will.

Therefore, do not look to the left, do not look to the right. Seek Me. Suppress your emotions which would want to speak loudly to you according to the things that you feel would work best for you. I say to you, those kinds of feelings and those kinds of decisions will only make things worse. But if you will come to Me and spend time in My Presence, I can give to you the wisdom that may not make sense in the natural, but in the realm of the Spirit, it is the way for you to fulfill My will established for your life.

So lay aside the feelings, lay aside the emotions, lay aside those things that man would call knee-jerk reactions, lay aside all the meditations of your mind and tap into the meditations of My heart, and receive from Me the wisdom that you need to make the decisions to take you where I want you.

Understand Worship

One of the greatest fears that your enemy has is that you will come to the place of understanding the power of worship. One of the first things that he has attacked throughout the ages is the worship of My people. For if he can stop their worship, he can stop the moves that I would work through them. If he can stop their worship, he knows that he will be able to stop their progress in Me.

For you see, worship is to be a part of your life as one of My children, for My Son said that I, God, seek for those who worship Me in spirit and in truth. Worship is supposed to be a very part of your being. Worship is supposed to be second nature to you. But in too many churches, they do not know about worship, so they do not worship. They sing, but they do not praise. They do not worship. And then in many churches that do have a better understanding of worship, they honor Me with their lips, but all too often, they are going through the motions. I have said many things about worship in My Word and how it impacts you, how it brings about My Presence. When you worship, it is as though you are inviting Me to spend time with you, and I respond to that.

Your enemy trembles at the thought that you would come to understand the power of worship because he knows that as you begin to worship Me, My glory is released through you, and that glory builds, as it were, a barrier to the enemy. If churches would worship Me, truly worship Me from their hearts, they would not split. Some people might leave, but the church would not split.

There are so many things that worship would accomplish. But I say to you this night: do your part—worship Me. You will experience My Presence in a unique way, but at the same time, if you will become a worshipper, many of the problems that you face away from church—problems in your marriage, problems in your homes with your children, problems on your job—the devils behind these problems can be driven away with your worship. So heed My words tonight. Worship will take you into a deeper place with Me. Worship Me. Allow Me to move in your midst.

God's Way

Hear Me, My church. I would say unto you today, you are in a battle. It is a spiritual battle. You have an enemy, but I have already defeated him. Have I not told you in My Word that the weapons of your warfare are not carnal, but they are mighty through Me to the pulling down of strongholds that exist in the lives of people? Come [against the enemy] through Me, come through Me. Speak My Word. Speak My Word and My truth against the strongholds that you see exists in the lives of others. Your battle is not with that person. It is with the strongholds and the spiritual wickedness and powers that have bound that person up. You need to go through Me. You need to do warfare in the Spirit.

Declare, declare according to My Word, the truth of My Word, over people and situations where you want to see change. Make a declaration. Declare it and decree it according to My Word and My truth. Give Me praise and give Me worship for the answer. Believe when you pray that you have received what you have asked for. Believe it as you pray and as you speak.

I desire, I desire to deliver your loved ones, your family members, your friends—those who have not yet received My Son into their lives. You know it is My will. You know it is My will for them to come to repentance and to come to salvation in Christ, but you must do it through Me, through the methods that I have given you in My Word. You cannot do it through your own strength, in and of yourself, but do it through Me. The weapons of warfare, they are not carnal but mighty through Me, through Me to the pulling down of the strongholds. Come through Me. Go through Me. I am the Captain; I am the Captain of the army. You are warriors. You are warriors. You have to do warfare in the Spirit. Do it My way. Come through Me.

The Greatest Reward

There is a place in Me and a dimension of My Presence that is so full of My grace and My love that it touches not just the adults, but even your young children can be enveloped in that kind of Presence. It is a transforming place in Me, a place where all can enter and all can dwell. I desire to release into your midst that level of My Presence and then even take you further.

Keep seeking Me. Keep pressing into Me, for if you do, the reward will be great. For you see, in the world of your religion, when the word “reward” is used, far too often people are looking for money and tangible things. But when you have experienced the true reward, which is My Presence, to the degree to which you have never experienced it, then you will understand just how trivial all of these other things are. So come into My Presence, seek Me, diligently press into Me and experience the greatest Reward of all.

Be Holy

I keep hearing the Lord say that we're coming to a time, and really [it is] upon us even now, but it's going to get more and more intense. The world is drifting farther and farther away from the precepts of God's Word and His will and His truth. There's been a time when the world would have accepted many things that the church believed, but that's no longer true. And the time is coming [when] we're going to have to be strong in what we know and in the truth that we know, and we're going to have to be bold because people are going to start saying, and it's already going on, but the wave is going to come.

The harder and harder and more powerfully that certain things are called okay when they're not—they're not okay according to God's Word. Sexual impurity, I'm just going to call it homosexuality. Cohabitation, premarital sex—the world says all of this stuff is okay, and it's done that for a long time. But this move and this ideology, it's getting stronger in the world. And the Lord is saying that we have to be strong. We've got to be rooted, and we've got to be grounded, and we've got to be pure in our own lives. We've got to be pure in our own lives if we're going to do the things He's called us to do and be able to minister to people and help get them out, help get them delivered from the sin and the bondage that they're tied up in and bound up with.

There's a real cleansing taking place here this morning. That's all I kept hearing the Lord say, "I am going to do a real cleansing." And He wants us just to bare ourselves before Him this morning, I mean just literally lay ourselves bare before Him. We're naked before Him anyway—He already knows all the junk. He already knows it. It's no secret to Him. We can't hide it from Him. We just need to lay ourselves bare before Him this morning and put all the junk on the altar—just sacrifice all that junk and just get rid of it.

There's junk in our lives, in my life—every one of us, we've got junk. I'm not saying it's sin; some of it isn't. Some of it is and needs to be eradicated; it needs to be repented of. Repented of not just to say "I'm sorry, God;" repentance means to stop. It means to stop at what you're doing. And the Lord is saying "Be ye holy for I am holy." We can't be His ambassadors in this world; we can't be His representatives in this world unless we are like Him. That's what a representative does. A representative is like the one he represents. So we have to be like Him.

[Dream] Be Prepared For Battle

The dream began with several hundred Christians standing outside in a grassy area. They were in groups of various sizes and would move from group to group. Everyone was discussing the same thing: spiritual warfare. Although I couldn't hear the specifics of any of the conversations, I knew everyone was talking about spiritual warfare: what it is, how to enter spiritual warfare, and so forth.

On my right was a small hill which ran the length of the grassy area. Suddenly, there was a low, rumbling sound coming from the other side of the hill. Someone shouted out, "They're coming!" and everyone began scrambling in great confusion. I looked toward the hill and a massive army of soldiers [was] marching in perfect order and discipline, with rifles on their shoulders. They had a look of absolute determination, one that indicated they were intent on accomplishing their assignment. These soldiers looked exactly like the North Korean army and were under the command of an officer on horseback.

As they marched toward us, people began looking for weapons. I ran to get a rifle of my own, and just as I picked it up, someone yelled out, "It's too late; they're already here!" I turned to look and saw that the soldiers had marched into the midst of the Christians. As I stood there watching, I noticed that the Christians were talking to the soldiers and trying to make friends with them to keep from getting killed. This is where the dream ended.

I awoke and began meditating on the meaning of the dream. The Lord began ministering to me and said, This is the way My Church is to Me. They talk about spiritual warfare but do nothing to be fully equipped to engage the enemy. Then, when the enemy marches into their lives, they are filled with confusion. They only try to develop their spiritual armor after the attack has begun.

The army in your dream represents the highly disciplined armies of darkness. They are more prepared for battle than My Church. This is why they succeed over and over; they are well trained and fully determined to accomplish their assignment. Until My children learn to stay in My Presence to be equipped for battle, they will try to fight with their own understanding and will lose every time.

Cause and Effect

Many in My Church are expecting Me to move and waiting for Me to move, and yet they are not giving Me an avenue on which I can move. For you see, if you will study My Word you will notice that I move in response to what those who call on My Name do, for as I was ready to give the Law to Israel, I did not give it until Moses came up the mountain.

For you see, in My Word, if you will search the Scriptures you will see that there is a cause and effect principle. When you do those things which give Me a place to move, then I will move. It is by your will that you make it possible for Me to move. For you see, it is My will for all to know My Son Jesus as Lord and Savior, but salvation itself is based on a cause and effect principle. I effect salvation when a person calls unto Me. Likewise, in your life things that you are seeking, if you will give Me the avenue on which I can move, I will move in your life. I am not holding back on you; I am waiting for you to make it possible for Me to do My part. I will not force Myself on you.

So if you are seeking Me for a spiritual promotion, you must do your part to make it possible for Me to move in your life to bring about this promotion. You are waiting for Me to move in this area or that area of life—you must do your part that will enable Me to move. Do not wait for Me to do something sovereignly. Search My Word. You will see that I operate in a different way. So I speak to you tonight these words of encouragement. Give Me a place in your life so I can move and I will move.

Deeper Level

I am calling you to a deeper level of holiness in Me. For too long, for too long, you have held on to some things you knew were wrong, that you needed to let go of. You need to lay them down. I am calling you to a deeper level of holiness in Me, a deeper walk with Me. In the days to come, you will no longer be able to hold on to sin. You are going to have to live holy before Me. Judgment is coming. Judgment is coming, and I have to pour out My judgment because I am true to My Word. The wicked will not stand, but My holy righteous ones will be saved. Have I not said unto you in My Word, be ye holy as I am holy? I am calling you to a deeper level of holiness in Me.

I will not be able to pour the anointing of My Spirit through you the way I desire if you do not do what I am asking—if you are not obedient to Me. Remember, obedience is better than sacrifice. I desire your obedience and I won't ask you, I do not ask you, to do anything I do not empower you to do. I empower you to do these things that I ask.

Spend time with Me. Spend time in My Presence. Spend time in My Word. Worship Me and you will find that it will not be so difficult to lay down these things I am asking you to lay down. It will be a natural outflow from the time you spend in My Presence and in worshiping Me and as you see with the eyes of the Spirit My love for you and My desire for you to do My works in this world.

You, you are the Body of Christ. You are My hand in this world, and I need you to be obedient to Me so that I can work through and so that I pour the anointing of My Spirit through you to minister to those who are bound. It is the anointing that breaks the yoke. It is the anointing that breaks the yoke of bondage in people's lives. You have got to have the anointing in your life. I cannot and I won't anoint those in My Body who refuse to be obedient, who refuse to walk holy before Me.

You know My desire. You know My words have said that I desire for all to come, all to come to repentance and to the knowledge of My dear Son Jesus. That is My will. That is My will. I love you with an everlasting love. My love will never change. And I do want to work through you, but you must be obedient. You must be obedient. Come into My Presence. Come into My Presence more and more and you will see change. You will see change.

PD070401B – Apr 1, 2007
Carrying Burdens

The burdens that you are carrying are, from My perspective, things from which I have already delivered you [from]. Why do you continue to hold on to that which you cannot change? Have I not said in My Word to cast all of your burdens onto Me? For if you could have changed these things in your life you would have already done it. And you still have not been able to. So seek Me, come to Me and truly cast the care of these burdens over onto Me. For you see, you are trying to carry a load that can do nothing but weigh you down and hinder your walk in Me. I did not create you to carry these burdens. As your Father, I have chosen to accept the responsibility of delivering you and bringing that deliverance to full manifestation in your life. But you must let Me.

So do not let the worry of these things govern your life. Trust Me. Trust Me. Daily declare your trust in Me. Daily declare that you refuse to accept the burdens and to carry their weight. Do not look at these situations in your life as insurmountable. Look at them as already being conquered by Me. And if you will trust Me, I will give this victory to you. You will see it. You will feel it. You will know it. So stop trying to figure out everything on your own and allow Me to release My wisdom to you so that you can see how these things are going to work out. Trust Me. Trust Me and see My deliverance.

[Dream] The Next Great Movement

This is the recounting of a dream. In this dream, Kathy and I were at what I think was a restaurant. We were sitting at a table with an extremely well-known minister and his associate. I don't know how long we had been there, but I remember feeling as though we had already finished our meals. The well-known minister was speaking and he said, "The Charismatic movement that took place back in the seventies was, to me, the most significant movement ever to take place in the Body of Christ."

What makes this statement so intriguing is the fact that, to my knowledge, this minister has never expressed any kind of belief in, or taught in favor of, the in-filling of the Holy Spirit with the evidence of tongues or a manifestation of the other gifts of the Spirit. In fact, I do not believe that he has ever professed to having had a "Charismatic experience" of being filled with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues.

As he was speaking, I nodded my head to express my understanding of what he was saying. Toward the end of his statement, I commented, “There is another coming,” at which his associate, smiling, looked over at me with an expression of interest as though he were asking me what I meant.

The minister said, “You mentioned that there is another coming. What do you mean by that?”

I answered, “The Charismatic movement was significant in that it wasn’t contained to one segment, but crossed nearly all denominational barriers and impacted Christians in many different churches. But the mistake the people in that movement made was to focus on the power. The power became the purpose [of the movement]. The next great movement coming to the Body of Christ is holiness. It is going to sweep through the [entire] Church like nothing ever has, and it is going to carry us through to the return of Jesus.”

In my mind I knew that this movement of holiness is not to be confused with what many have called a “revival of doctrine” that is growing. On the inside, I had this understanding that even if some people remain sharply divided on certain doctrinal issues, this movement of holiness will still flow in their churches.

Follow God

You have been seeking for a long time wondering what is real and what is not real. And throughout the years a lot of people have set before you a lot of paths, and you have been told that if you do this, take this, walk this way, go in this direction, trust in this, that things would be better. But I would have you know that the only way that things can really change in your life and be better is if you will fully trust Me.

To know how to trust Me is revealed in My Word. For you see, there are many who have claimed to trust Me, who have claimed to have put their faith in Me and are following Me, then they turn and tell others what to do, when in reality, so, so many of them are seeking Me according to what they have reasoned in their mind to be the way to find Me. And I tell you that in My Word, you will find the answers you have been seeking. For My Word reveals My Son to be the only way to gain access to Me. And by accepting My Son as your Lord and Savior, you gain access into My Presence and you are welcomed; you are welcomed at all times.

And I will set before you a path for your life that is perfect because you see, whatever I design, whatever I create, is perfect. There is nothing imperfect in Me, and there is nothing imperfect in what I do. So your heart has been looking, seeking, and crying out for these things—some things that you have not shared with others. And I say to you this day: Fully put your trust in Me. Fully put your trust in Me. I will never fail you, and I will take you by the hand and lead you into the joys of life that you have never known.

All You Need

All things, all things that you have need of from Me, they are already done. It was all accomplished at Calvary. The enemy was defeated. Death, hell, and the grave were defeated. Your healing was provided; your healing was made ready for you. Just receive it. I have already healed you; just receive what I have already done for you. Reach out to Me, reach out to Me with your faith. That is how you touch Me, with your faith. Your faith is what moves Me. Your faith is what moves Me.

The work is already done; receive it by your faith. Whatever you have need of today I am here; I give it to you freely. I give you freely what you need. I love you with an everlasting love. I know everything about you; I know the beginning from the end. I have the answers that you need. I have the answers that you seek. Come unto Me. Come unto Me. I will give you rest. I will give you rest. I will give you the rest that you seek. I will give you the answers that you seek. Seek Me. Seek Me and My Kingdom. I have all that you need. I am that I Am. I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. There is no life apart from Me, no life apart from Me. I am Life. Choose Me. Choose life. Choose Me.

Emotions Must Submit

There is no emotion yet that has ever been born of natural circumstances that is more powerful than My peace. There is no emotion of fear, or anger, or discouragement, or any other feeling that comes forth as a result of the challenges you face that is greater than My peace. For you see, My peace is not based upon the circumstances you face but upon the life that I have given to you. For My peace is birthed from the very heart of My Being.

And because you have accepted My Son as your Lord and Savior, My peace has been deposited into you by virtue of that life that is in you. Therefore, it is a peace that is based on the spiritual purity of My very existence. When the emotions that you begin to feel as a result of the circumstances that you feel in life start to overwhelm you, and you begin to feel overwhelmed and exasperated—you begin to feel hopelessness and all of these other things that you have gone through—My peace is more powerful than all of those emotions. For My peace is based on a state of eternal existence not on temporal circumstances.

You will experience fear and trepidation. You will experience depression, those feelings of being overwhelmed—those [are the] emotions you will feel when you begin to get your eyes off of Me, when you begin to look away from the fullness of who I am to you, what I have given unto you. But if you will listen to My words this night and realize that the moment you got born again is the moment that My peace was released into your spirit, and learn to tap into that peace which is spiritual in nature, the emotions that have held you down for so long will have to release you, for they cannot control your life when your life is being sustained by My peace.

So again I say to you, there are no emotions that come forth out of circumstances you face which are more powerful than My peace. My peace can govern your life, and you can live in that peace every day.

The Battle and Grace

The greatest clash between evil and righteousness that has ever taken place in this country is on the verge of taking place.

As he was sharing this with me, what I'm seeing are two opposing armies on horseback. On both sides there are far too many to count—thousands upon thousands upon thousands. On the one side, they're all on dark black horses, and they are dressed in the furs of animals; they are like barbarians. The furs of the animals represent the killing and the stealing and the destroying they have done over the years. They are screaming and yelling; they are taunting and cursing. Their eyes are filled with hatred. Their intent is to obliterate. They have no desire to take any prisoners at all. All they want to do is to annihilate.

And on the other side, there is an army on white horses. Their armor is shining in its brilliance. They are not saying a word, but instead their swords are stretched forth and their eyes are fixed. There is a gaze in their eyes to where they are staring straight ahead. They are not looking to the right; they are not looking to the left, and they are charging without reservation directly into the oncoming charge of the enemy.

The Lord said the hoards on the one side, on the dark horses, represent the evil, and the soldiers in the shining armor on the white horses represent righteousness. The Lord says, Learn from My Word, for I have given you an example of this battle to come in My Word in the Old Testament. As Moses sat on the rock and watched the armies of righteousness oppose the armies of evil, as long as his hands were lifted, symbolic of worship, praise, and surrender unto Me, the armies of righteousness won. But as they began to drop, the armies of evil began to prevail. It took Aaron and it took Hur to stand on either side of Moses to hold his arms up. This is symbolic of My Body being in support of one another, holding each other up, and being in submission to Me in worship and prayer. As long as Moses' arms were upheld, the armies of righteousness prevailed and eventually they won.

Hear me this day, for this battle is on the verge of taking place. There has never been anything like it in the history of this nation. If evil prevails, this nation will never recover. And if this nation never recovers, the world will never recover. You are at a crossroads in history.

And I say to you this day, you can stop this and righteousness can prevail, but you must come before Me, and you must submit your own plans to Me, and you must submit your will and your desires to Me so that they become Mine. You must take a stand against this in the realm of the Soirit. If you do, righteousness shall prevail.

For I have given you the weapons for the warfare that you need to engage the enemy. There is only one thing that the enemy is counting on, one hope and that is all, and that is the complacency of My Church. The enemy is counting on Christians not doing what they need to do, laying down their weapons and giving up, for that is the only hope that the enemy has for victory in this battle.

So I say to you, take heed to what I have said and listen closely, for destruction is at your door. But you can turn this thing around if you will come before My throne of grace and allow My power to pour through your humbled heart and bring about the victory, says the Lord.

Emotions

My holiness is like a fire that burns within the heart of a person to purge them of impurities. There are many of you who have been experiencing times of emotional distress, and it is because a fire has been ignited on the inside of you to purge you of things that have been holding you back from fulfilling what I have called you to do. But you have not recognized this. Some of you have wondered, “Why am I like this? Why am I struggling this way?” And I would say it is because you have sought Me enough to ignite that fire, but because you have not realized what is happening, it is almost as though you have been trying to extinguish that fire.

But I want to encourage you this day that if you will continue to seek Me, that fire will continue to burn brighter and, yes, you will go through a time of winning a victory over that emotional distress. If you will not stop, you will see that victory manifest in your life, and with that victory, you will experience an entirely new level of My holiness and My glory on the inside of your spirit. So do not stop, says the Lord. Do not stop. Keep pressing into Me and let the fire of My holiness burn that stuff out of you so you can become a vessel of honor and glory unto Me.

PD070520 – May 20, 2007
God’s Love

Many have misunderstood My love. They have misunderstood how My love is revealed and demonstrated. For you see, I love you so much that I am willing to allow you to make whatever decisions you want to make. And if you choose to go against My Word and against the plan that I have for your life, that is your choice, but I will still love you.

I love people enough that I honor their freedom to choose, and there are those who have chosen to reject My Son and condemn themselves to an eternity without Me. This is the kind of love that you must extend. In the world where you live, this concept of love has been twisted into a concept that many people call tolerance, and you are told that you are to tolerate and even give special privileges to those who choose sin. Well that is simply a work of the enemy to twist My Divine love into something that is perverted.

You can choose to commit sin and I will still love you. But you must love in this same way, for there are many who are trying to change their loved ones against their will, and this is not love. For you see, I will send many people into your life to try and influence you to make the right decision, but I will not try to force you into making a decision. And yet some of you are demonstrating an intolerance to allow someone else to exercise their freedom to choose to rebel against Me. Now this is a hard thing and many do not understand it. For there are some of you who are trying so hard to change the people that are around that you are forgetting to demonstrate My love. You must love them enough to allow them to reject Me and go their own way, for the more you try to force them into something that you know I want is the less you will accomplish.

I cannot work My will in those who will not allow Me, so I will sit here and I will watch the rebellion of My children as they go different paths, choose different doctrines. And even though they are My children, they will be living a type of prodigal lifestyle. And all the while they are doing this, I will be working My will in those who will allow Me.

Now, I love you no matter what, but I do not approve of your sin, and you need to know that I am watching, and I know what choices you are making. And no, I am not going to send lightning bolts into your life to try to correct you. I will work through your spirit to try to draw you unto Me. But you can continue to choose whatever you like; I have given you that ability. But I still love you. It breaks My heart when you make wrong choices, and I can see how far short you are falling, how far short you are to fulfilling, to accomplishing, to becoming all that I desire.

So for those of you who are trying to live for Me the way that you know, I say love those around you the way that I love you and that I love them. You are not to tolerate sin. You are not to accommodate sin, but at the same time, you are to demonstrate My love. If they do not want to follow Me, there is nothing you can do to change their will. So you keep pressing into Me and you let your life become the testimony they must see. You let your relationship with Me become the light that is in their life. Through this testimony I will be able to speak to them and to minister to them, but the change will only happen if they choose; you cannot choose for them. But rest in this: I am doing everything I can in their lives to bring about change. I have not forgotten them. I am not leaving them alone. I am there now. So do not try to live someone else's life. You live your own and live it in honor unto Me and submission to Me and see My glory work through you.

God's Direction

The path of My will for your life is not paved with the things that you think you should do. For all too often, the things that seems to make the most sense to you in the natural makes the least sense to Me. For that which appears to be good in the natural is not always that which I have decreed from the Spirit, and yet many of My children have come to the place of believing that if what they see makes sense, if what they see looks good, and if what they see appeals to them, then it must be Me. But I say unto you, consider the fact that every Christian who has sinned has done so because at the moment of that decision that sin appealed to them, and the benefits they perceived caused it to make sense to them.

The path that I have set before you for your life does not consist of natural reasoning. The path that I have set before you consists of spiritual reasoning, and the only way that you are truly going to understand what I am doing in your life is if you learn to access the mind of Christ. For in My Word I have said that I have given you the mind of Christ. This is speaking of a spiritual way of thinking, a Heavenly way of thinking, a Kingdom way of thinking. But far too many of My children have made life-changing mistakes because the decisions they made were decisions based upon what they saw in the natural and what seemed to make sense to them. And all too often, those things which seemed to make the most sense would be confirmed to you as not making sense to Me if you would spend more time in prayer. But too many people look at things and they say, "It makes sense so it must be of God. It looks good so it must be of God. There are benefits so it must be of God." And on occasion that is true, but many times it is not. And because of this, many of My children have stepped off in a direction that is not of Me. And even though in the natural there appears to be great blessings, in reality they are walking into a spiritual wilderness which could be of no benefit to them whatsoever. Many of My children have been destroyed in the realm of the natural because of this.

So I say unto you, the path that I have for your life originated in the realm of the Spirit, and it is by spiritual guidance that I will lead you down that path. Do not believe that your own reasoning will always take you in the direction that I want. You must listen to Me. You must hear Me because your enemy can create circumstances in the natural that would seem to be Me telling you to go this direction or that direction, when in reality, what he is trying to do is push you off the path that I would have you on. Your enemy is a liar, and all through history he has manipulated circumstances to cause people to miss Me. This is why I have said in My Word not to lean to your own understanding but in all your ways acknowledge Me, and I will direct your paths.

So lay aside that which seems to make sense to you. Come to Me and pray because if you make the wrong choice, I will be able to help you, but in some cases, it could cost you years in your progress in Me. So seek Me and pray and get direction for your life, direction that is originated in My heart, and I will give it to you, says the Lord.

PD070527B – May 27, 2007
Yield to God

I can only work change in your life to the degree that you have yielded to Me. There are many of My children who have wondered why things are not changing in their lives, but I would have you know that everything that I could possibly change has already been changed relative to the amount of your life that you have yielded over to Me. You see, the change you seek is spiritual in nature and I am a Spirit. Therefore, you must yield to Me and you must come into My Presence; you must seek Me. And if you do, I will be able to work in you and bring about changes that you need. For if you could change yourself, you would have done it already. So you know the futility of trying to do all these things by your own efforts and your own works. But the more of you that you yield to Me, the more I will be able to work in your life to effect that change.

So know this: I am willing to work in your life as much as you let Me. The more that you yield your life over to Me, the more I will be able to bring about change. This is one of the reasons why many of you have not seen My will brought to pass in your life; it is because you are not yielding the fullness of your life over to Me so that I can bring that will to pass. So yield to Me. Come to Me. Spend time with Me. Do not get bored in My Presence. Focus your attention on Me and I will be able to bring about change. And the change I will bring about will cause you to conform more and more to the glory of the image of My Son, says the Lord.

God's Glory in Us

In My Word I have said that My Glory shall fill this earth. And many have misunderstood what that means. But I want you to know how that is going to happen in these last days. For you see, first off, My Glory must fill My saints before it can fill this earth. And in these last days, many have called for a revival. Many have prophesied the coming revival. But the revival is going to take place first in My Church before it begins to spread throughout this world. And there is a remnant within My Body that is going to seek My Presence and seek My face like never before. That remnant has already begun to seek Me, and more are going to step into that realm of a holy consecration to seek My face. As they do, they will be entering in deeper and deeper, closer and closer into the full revelation of who I am.

As they begin to experience that, their spirit will become stronger. They will become conditioned wine skins into which I am going to pour greater and greater levels of My Glory. And the days will come to where the glory that I have deposited into them is going to begin to flow out of them. It will become, as it were, a glow in the realm of the Spirit that moves in the Spirit around them; it will be My Glory and My Presence that they carry with them everywhere they go.

This is how My Glory is going to fill the earth. For this chosen remnant, walking in the glory is going to walk in a level of anointing and power that has not been seen since the book of Acts. It is going to be a level of glory and power demonstrated in a way that this world has not seen. For I am calling into accountability those who have played with My anointing and those who have played with my Glory. I am calling into accountability the preachers and the churches who have dismissed the fullness of My Presence and have substituted for the purpose of their own agendas.

And I say to you that a judgment is being released through this glory in this world even now. For I will be known, say the Lord, and My glory will be seen. And I say to you this day, the door to My Presence is open to all who will enter in. So come in, come in, I say. Come in, I say, and experience the Presence of My glory and My power that will reach this world. and millions will come in to the Kingdom.

Winds of Change

The winds of change are in this place. The winds of exaltation from Heaven are in this place. For I have called this place, says the Spirit of Grace, to be a lighthouse, not only to this region but to this nation. And you are living in an hour and a day that you will see this place rise. You will see this destiny rise. You will see this lighthouse stretch forth the curtains of its habitation. For I, says the Spirit of the Lord, am strengthening the stakes. And today, says the Spirit of the Lord, I say: Come up higher, come up higher, come up higher.

PD070603A – Jun 3, 2007
Entertainment Churches

As we were worshipping the Lord, I saw, and it sounds kind of strange, but I saw a balloon—a kind of balloon you would just blow up for your children to play with. And the Lord said, Here is what this balloon represents. This represents the churches that have introduced entertainment into My Presence. They have converted their churches from houses of prayer and places to seek My face to establishments of entertainment. They have created theaters instead of temples for My glory. They bring in the masses, and the masses come for the entertainment. The masses love to look at the big screens with beautiful images, the images of nature and other things that are flashed upon these screens during the times of praise and worship.

And the masses come, and they love to look at the screens and have someone present My Word upon those screens instead of being encouraged to bring My Word. They love to look at the images that are splashed upon these screens as the sermons are developed.

Hear Me this day, for this is an attack of the enemy on My Church. I never ordained for this to be established and come into existence, and this is why: Because these images that are splashed upon these screens are penetrating into the hearts and the minds of the people. What they are doing is replacing the image of My glory that I would want to sow into their hearts. Instead of allowing the people to capture the image of My Presence in their spiritual eye, they are putting things in front of the people to be entertained to stimulate their souls. Instead of their spirits being stimulated by My Presence, they are being entertained in their souls, and they are never entering into a place with Me where I desire to fellowship with them.

Just like that balloon is filled with air, this type of church is filled with air and no substance. They have many programs; they have beautiful facilities, but they have no anointing—not the kind of anointing that I desire to pour out into My Churches. For these churches of entertainment, these churches that you call seeker friendly—hear Me now—their cycle is coming to an end, and the hollowness of what they have presented to the masses will soon be realized by people who are searching for reality.

Those who have become bored in churches have looked for something to capture their imagination. But I say to you that I want to capture their imagination. And they have been directed away from Me through the use of this entertainment, by the use of these presentations. And the minds of the leadership have been captivated; they have felt this is the way to reach the people, this is the way to bring them in.

But they have not received this from Me; they have received this from their committees, from their councils. They have even gone so far as to hire Hollywood consultants to learn the best way to bring about a presentation in a church. And it has been a trap of the enemy that has been laid and slowly implemented over the years.

I will always bless and honor My Word, and I will always anoint and bless My Word. But when you begin to compromise My Word with the things of this world, My blessing and My anointing begin to pull away. And the day is coming when you are going to see some of these churches begin to diminish. They are going to begin to fall apart. And the leadership will not understand why.

Here is why; I will tell you. It is because the people have never been given true genuine spiritual substance. I said worship Me, not be entertained while you sing songs, for those who worship Me in spirit and in truth do not need pictures on a screen to cause them to enjoy the times of praise and worship. Those of you who seek for such things, you have been led astray. Hear Me now: Your heart strings have been tainted by an attack of the enemy. Do not allow yourself to be deceived into thinking this is the way a church should operate.

I will tell you how a church should operate. A church should operate by the fullness of the anointing of My Holy Spirit and the leadership of My Spirit. This is what I intend. But when people in churches—the pastors the leaders—do not seek My Presence, do not seek My anointing, they have to find something to keep the people coming. And so they develop their programs, and they develop their forms of entertainment. But I challenge you this day to look over the past fifty years and look at all of the cycles of the Church that have come and gone, the methods of keeping the people in the churches. Over time, the anointing that was supposed to be there is not there.

There have always been remnant churches that have operated in My anointing. But those remnant churches have been seen by many as boring. Those remnant churches have been seen by many as strange, as weird, as fringe. And yet those remnant churches, the ones that I speak of, are the ones that have lined up with My Word. And in these last days, it is a period that never before has existed in My Church—never—for there are more forms of entertainment and religion and man’s traditions than ever, more things to capture the minds of the people to lead them astray.

But all throughout My Word, what have I said to you? I have said seek Me, seek Me. There are many people in churches even this day who have asked Me for more, and I have spoken to them. I have attempted to bring them into churches that are pressing deeper into the presence of My glory, going in the direction of My holiness, seeking My face. But some of them are holding onto their past and holding onto their traditions and holding onto their comfort zone and will not turn loose of it, and yet they still cry out, seeking Me. I say to you this day, you must turn your back on everything that is not of Me. Just because a person can stand behind a pulpit and deliver a message that can stir your soul and your emotions does not mean that it has been anointed of Me.

So hear Me this day: Do not seek the entertainment, do not seek for the emotional stirring. Seek for the glory. Seek for My Presence. Seek for a church that will give you substance and what I want to do, for in these last days, there are those who have been in the entertainment churches who are going to be looking for something that is real. There are those in many of those churches, their eyes are going to be opened, and they are going to realize that “There’s nothing (in those churches) but fluff. The genuine true Presence of God that I’ve read about in the Bible is not here.”

So you must prepare yourselves, those of you who are seeking Me. You must prepare yourselves spiritually to receive those who will be looking for the genuine. For it is through you that I will begin to move, to minister to them, to help them break off the shackles of the deception that has wrapped around them. For in My Word I refer to My Church in the plural. I am seeking for people whom I can move through, not just a person. I am seeking for people whom I can move through, and it is through those people that I will be able to touch those who are hungry and thirsty for a genuine relationship with Me.

So hear Me this day, listen to what I tell you. I never endorsed or anointed the entertainment concept that has swept through so many of My churches. I want people to experience My power, My glory, My mercy, My grace—the fullness of who I am. And for those who are seeking all those things, you will find it. I will pour out that Presence of Mine into your life and into your churches, says the Lord

PD070603B – Jun 3, 2007
Seeking Rewards

In My Word, as I ministered here on earth, there were many questions asked of Me. And every answer that I gave was an answer that came forth out of the Kingdom, not from the natural. This is one of the reasons why so many struggle with the answers I gave. It is because they did not understand who I was. They did not understand that I was speaking to them of things that have been revealed as types and shadows under the Law.

When they asked Me questions about who I am, and I began to answer them and explain to them that I am the Bread of Life, I tried to cause them to see that I was the Source of their sustenance and everything about life. I explained to them that My blood in the natural represented the spiritual cleansing that they needed. But they could only see the natural. They could not accept the spiritual Kingdom explanation that I was giving to them. For you see, many, many people followed Me, but not all accepted what I said to them and what I taught to them. And at one time, many of them decided that what I was teaching was too hard to accept, and they left Me. I turned to the twelve and I said, "Would you like to join them?" yet they comprehended that I had the words of life, even though they did not fully understand what that meant at that time. They realized there was something to what I was speaking to them, and they continued following Me. It was because they made that choice to continue following Me that I was able to continue to minister to them and lead them into a place to where after I left this earth, they were able to go forth and continue what I had begun.

Now I say to you this night, many of you as citizens of the Kingdom have been led about by much religion and much tradition. But in these last days, as I have spoken through My prophets, I have said that there is going to be a revival of doctrine. This doctrine includes those things which will take you to a place of being able to accomplish all that I have set before you. And there are many even in this place tonight who are going to be challenged by things that they hear because they are going to be thinking with the mind of religion and tradition and not with the Kingdom mind.

But I say to you this night, consider My Word and consider that what I teach from My Word, it comes forth out of the Kingdom, out of the realm of the Spirit. And if you will receive these things that I will continue to show you in these last days, it will cause you to move from the place where you are into a place with Me where you will do My works. For I have said that if you believe, you will be able to do the works that I have done. And if you will capture the fullness of that truth that I have spoken, that I have revealed before you, you can begin walking in that level of anointing.

For in these last days, there are many in My Church who are going to accept this, and many who will reject it. Those who reject it, they will still be welcomed into eternity with Me. However, the rewards that they could have had will never be obtained. But those who will accept the teachings that will take them further into My glory and into My Presence, not only will they accomplish for Me on earth what I would have them do, but they will be laying up treasures in Heaven, and the rewards will be great. The earthly mind looks forward to all of the rewards because the earthly mind envisions great riches and great wealth. But do you not understand? You will not need great riches and great wealth in Heaven.

And when you get to that place in Me to where you are beginning to do those works, you will not be thinking of rewards; you will be thinking of bringing pleasure to Me. Because it will be out of the fellowship you have with Me that you will be able to do these works. And rewards will not be at the forefront of your mind, but fulfilling the call that I have upon your life and running the race that is set before you, that is what you will think of. My Presence abiding with you and you abiding in Me in My Presence continually, that is what will be on your mind. And your joy will be full, says the Lord.

Worship Dispels Darkness

As we began to enter into what we call free worship, where we just pour out of our heart our praise and worship to the Lord and sing unto Him—singing with the understanding and singing in the Spirit, singing a new song unto the Lord—as we began to do that, the Lord gave me a vision. He showed me that as that praise begins to rise up and that worship begins to rise up and pour up out of our spirit, it was like it began pushing back the darkness of this region.

It began pushing it back in a circle around where this worship was rising up, and the circle began growing and getting bigger and bigger and bigger. And the Lord said that it is this kind of worship, this kind of praise, that as it begins to go up out of your spirit, it begins to drive back the darkness.

And as I saw this, the darkness was being pushed back, and this increasingly large circle, the darkness, could not re-enter that area of worship. No matter what it did, it could not re-enter that realm of glory that had been produced by our worship. And the Lord said that it is this kind of worship that is going to begin to have greater and greater impact anywhere it is released.

And here, a while back, there was a sermon the Lord gave me that I preached entitled “Warring Worship.” The Lord says this is an example of what that kind of worship will do; it does war against the darkness of a region that people ask Me to move in on and to remove Satan, and ask Me to get involved. And He says, I do get involved, but I release the rivers of My glory, the rivers of My Presence, the rivers of My anointing from My throne. And those rivers are to flow through you, out of you, and into that region. As you begin to worship and as you begin to praise this way, that glory and that anointing, My river of cleansing, begins to cleanse the region of the darkness that has covered that area. It is not good enough to do it just one service. When this kind of worship becomes a lifestyle, when it becomes the norm for your services when you come together as a congregation, it is like you begin to build barriers of glory to where it is not just a river, but it becomes an ocean that is supplied by the river. It becomes established through the worship.

Once it is established through the worship, it is maintained through the worship. And when it is established and it is maintained, you are creating an atmosphere that is more and more conducive for revival. This is not the only key for revival, but it is a part of the whole. And when it is utilized, you can begin to expect to see mighty moves of My Presence.

PD070604B – Jun 4, 2007
Anointed of God

I anointed My Son with the Holy Ghost and power, and He went about doing good, healing all that were oppressed the devil. I say to you, look at the life of My Son. Read the four Gospels. Look at how He ministered. Religion could never stop Him. Religion tried, but it could not stop Him.

My Son is to be the example of your churches. My Son is to be the example that you are to follow. Remember My Son was born during a time while the Law of Moses was still in effect. He lived under that Law, yet He did not let the religion added to that Law stop Him from accomplishing what I sent Him to do. And I say to you, when My Son becomes your pattern, religion will not stop any church. When you begin to move in the flow of the anointing that I laid upon My Son, you will be able to do the works that He did. And those works include never being stopped by the religious acts and traditions of man.

If you will do this, your church will experience explosive growth. That growth will take place first in the realm of the Spirit before it ever manifests in the realm of the natural. If you will follow the pattern of My Son, the religious mind of those in your midst will not stop what I am doing. Seek Me in a way that you have never sought Me. Follow the pattern that I have given to you in My Word, and I will be able to establish in your midst a church that religion will call strange, uncommon, and even weird, but Heaven will call glorious.

I will do this in any church which will allow Me. I do not respect one above the other. I look to move in all equally. If you will let Me, I will do this, and I will do it with great anointing, great power, and great glory, says the Lord

PD070604C – Jun 4, 2007
Worship Into God's Presence

There is a place in My Presence that can only be accessed through worship. That place has been blocked off by religion's definition of worship. For man has said worship must be this, and worship must be that, and there must be order, and there must be structure. Man has removed the emotionalism from worship.

But I say to you, that there is a type of emotionalism which is produced by a move of My anointing upon the spirit of man. It is that type of demonstration which is completely in order before Me and before My throne. For did not the apple of My eye, David, dance before Me after he had removed all the garments of dignity? And even his wife was embarrassed by his emotional display.

I say to you, you have more to rejoice about than David. For as David rejoiced over the ark being brought into the city, I say to you the ark now resides in you. And My Presence in you is worthy of your praise and worthy of your worship. There are many of you who are struggling with things from your past. I say to you this night, a key for you to break loose and break free is worship. You must humble yourself before Me and worship Me. When you do, you will feel My touch upon your life, and those things from your past that have held onto you like chains, those things will be broken.

For you see, there is an anointing, a type of anointing that is only released through worship. And many of My churches, they have removed the worship while emphasizing the Word. In some churches, they have removed the Word and emphasized the worship. But you see I am a God of completeness. And in these last days you are going to see a greater balance reflecting My completeness than you have ever seen before: the balance of the Word, the balance of the worship, the balance of everything that I have established for My Church. And it is happening now, in many, many churches. I want it to exist in you.

So hear Me now, lay aside everything that tells you it is improper to worship Me the way I have described worship in My Word. If you want to know Me in a way that you have never known Me, I say to you, worship your way into the depths of My Presence and experience the depths of My glory, says the Lord.

The Sword of Worship

Worship is going to be one of the greatest swords in this last hour—the high praise of God, the deep worship—to make war in the heavenlies. It is going to release and break the heavens open. It is going to open the veil. Miracles, signs, and wonders are going to be poured out in the realm of worship in this hour like never, never, never before. It literally creates the atmosphere for the Holy Spirit brooding.

And this is upon [you] this day, says the Spirit of the Lord, it is upon you this day. For even in this place, I have called you, says the Spirit of the Lord. For surely this place shall be a habitation. As I have said before, I will bring the nations into and out of your gates. Be faithful to Me and all of these things will be established, says the Spirit of Grace. All of these things will come in place. Align yourself with Me, says the Spirit of the Lord; see what I see, go where I go, do what I do, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Be with Me where I am, says the Spirit of the Lord. It is a day of great increase. Move in the rivers of increase. Move in the rivers of multiplication. Move, says the Spirit of the Lord, in sync with Me.

PD070605B – Jun 5, 2007

A Putting Together

There are so many aspects to a true birth. The Lord is pulling things together. He is pulling resources together. He's pulling revelation. And He is putting all of the diamonds and the jewels together. It's like we have all been on a journey. And in that journey we go down certain paths, and sometimes those paths do not even look like it is the place that we are suppose to go, but at the end of that path there is a pearl. And right then it doesn't mean a lot. And it seems like the Lord is pulling pearls together in the Spirit. And there are certain things being formed, and all of these foundations have been laid, and the sides are coming upon line.

It seems like the Lord is putting the roof on the house, and He is about ready to inhabit the praises of His people and inhabit the worship of His people. And He is pulling all of these revelations together, and they will work in perfect harmony together. It is not one revelation, but it's many working together in a government of peace and a government of harmony. And the increase of His government and peace, there will be no end.

It is the hour that My kings will begin to march in perfect alignment with My Priest. An hour such as the world has not ever known, says the Spirit of the Lord, for I will entrust authority to My people in this hour like never before. You will see in your generation what all past generations have seen, says the Spirit of the Lord. All culminated in one generation. I am preparing a bride to be adorned in a full inheritance, to walk in a full mantle before Me. And I have called you to train you, says the Spirit of the Lord, to equip you, to prepare you to carry all of My glory.

In one day, a nation can be changed. Understand and know, says the Spirit of the Lord, I am Divinely positioning My people to hear, to see, to understand with their heart. It is the aligning of Heaven and earth that will cause it all to be released. Come and align with all of these things and abandon all of those things that are not of Me. For it is not an hour that you can be distracted. You see, I am calling forth an alignment in the Spirit. I am calling you to sit. I am calling you to stand. I am calling you to walk. I am calling you to run. I am calling you to be with Me where I am. This above all things, you must be with Me where I am in this last hour.

There are those in this place that you must accelerate, and there are those in this place who must slow down. There are those in this place who must put one foot forward and begin to move and to step out of that which is familiar. To step out of the comforts and come out with Me. Come out into the waters. Come out into the deep. I am calling now into the deep, for the harvest now is in the deep. It is in the deep. The harvest is in the deep; you must come out there now with Me. And I require full access to your vessel. As you allow Me to sit down and administrate from your vessel, from your seat of authority, you will be those who will launch out to that place.

Shifting and Change

I feel the brooding of the Lord in this place. I feel the brooding of the Lord over so many people. There is such a brooding; I believe that things are going to break open in a wonderful, wonderful new way. I see people right now being unlocked from complacency and indifference. There is just an unlocking right now, just unlocking and just coming completely out of that [indifference]. I see those who have been enclosed, as flowers [they] are beginning to bloom. I am seeing walls just begin to plummet and fall all over right now.

I'm seeing the Lord beginning to open the eyes of your understanding, all over this room right now. It's like in this next season, even this next week, this next month, the vision is going to explode all over again. That light is going to explode in your heart all over again. The walls of indifference are just going to fall. The walls of complacency, the shells that we have climbed into to deal with the issues of life are just going to fall. They are going to fall; they are falling right now in Jesus' name. They are being loosed all over this place right now. Oh, Father, let the shackles be loosed right now, let them fall, let them break, let the shackles break. Let them break in this place; all over, let the shackles break. I see the hearing ear, the seeing eye, I see the heart and the hunger being stirred again.

You know when a fighter gets in the ring and he has been knocked down, it takes a lot for him to get back in that ring. But it takes a lot more to find that confidence he once held. There is confidence being restored in this place right now. There is that godly confidence that is being restored in your soul, in your spirits. A fullness, a fullness coming over you right now to stand up again, to be fully ready to run, to be fully ready to embrace and to carry the cross again, to carry the call again.

For I see people just stepping out right now into the water. They are just coming out, they are just stepping out into the deep, just stepping out. Freedom, freedom, I see the path where the Word, the rich revelation, is meeting the Spirit of God, the habitation of God. And they are coming together.

There is a shifting in the Spirit all over the place. I have not seen anything like this, what I am looking at right now. There is a shifting in the Spirit. Everybody is shifting right now. The remnant is shifting; it has been sitting still at the bank of the Jordan, but there is a shifting and a calling. There is a rumble in the camp right now, and there is a voice in the camp, all over. And everybody is preparing to go over.

The Spirit of the Lord said, Go right to where I have called you to be in the Spirit. But I will say, it is time now for a shifting in the Spirit. I decree that over everyone in this place right now, every calling, every family, every ministry, every business—I decree the supernatural shifting of the Lord, the supernatural seasons of the Lord, the graduations, the promotion, the moving of the water, the stirring of the water, the marching of the Lord. Let it be released. Let it be released. So let it be, Father, according to your Word. So let it be, according to your Word.

I feel the army of the Lord. I hear the army of the Lord. I am hearing and seeing instructions being carried by the hands of angels all over the place, the marching of the Lord, the rising to take the position. I tell you, people, there are going to be things that are going to shift in your life before your eyes, spiritual shifting, natural shiftings. There is an aligning in the Spirit right now. Right now, you need to welcome that full alignment, just welcome it right now. Father, I will go—giving the permission for what He wants to do because there's an alignment taking place in the Spirit right now.

Where I am, there shall My servant be also, says the Spirit of Grace. Father, right now we surrender to the Divine alignment of the Lord. We want to be exactly where you are. Geographically, this place is going to shift geographically. I decree it in the Spirit, says the Spirit of the Lord. A spiritual aligning, geographical aligning, an abandoning of the old way into the new. A stepping out of the old and into the new. Behold, I do a new thing, says the Spirit of the Lord, shall you not know it? I make a way in the sea, in the path, in the mighty waters. This house of worship is going to be Divinely aligned. We are called to labor. We are called to receive of other men's labor; we are called to walk freely where others have labored. Be bold be strong, says the Spirit of the Lord, for I am with you.

Spiritual Tools

Just like a craftsman cannot perfect his trade without the proper tools, those in My Body cannot perfect their calling without the proper tools. I am continually giving you more and more of these spiritual tools that you need to fulfill what I have called you to do. It is important for you to recognize this and to take advantage of these things I am placing in your hands. For if you do, you are going to be molded and formed more and more into the perfect image of exactly what I have called you to do.

But if you do not apply these, if you do not utilize what I am giving to you, you will only go so far into what I have called you to do. I will be able to bless you at that level, but I will not be able to bless you beyond that level because the fullness of My blessings is directly related to you walking in the fullness of My will.

So use these tools that I give you. Use these things that I show you and present unto you out of My Word. Use them to develop yourself spiritually so that I can use you and draw you closer to Me, calling you up from where you are to the next level, and develop in you the fullness of what I want you to do. Use what I present to you. Do not dismiss these things. Do not turn them away. Do not ignore them, but use what I give you and you will see Me move continually in your life and take you to greater and greater levels in Me.

Healing and Grace

Healing is not a commodity that can be purchased; healing is a work of My Grace. Healing is an act of My love. And you access this part of My Grace, this part of My love, the same way you access all of My Grace—it is by your faith. My healing that I work in your body is available freely. So do not look unto man for the formulas to produce healing. Look unto My Word that has produced the healing. And again I say unto you, healing is a work of My Grace, and I make it available to you at no charge because I love you, says the Lord.

The Path of Glory

The path into My Presence and My glory is easily accessible, but it is hard to walk. For you see, along this path, the enemy has created many diversions. These are paths that seem to look very good, paths that seem to make much sense. And so many of My children make a decision to those diversions, thinking they are staying on the same path that I set before them,

Yet in My Word I have said that there is a way that seems right to you, but the end of that way is going to be destruction. You see, the way that leads to destruction leads away from the fullness of what I want to do in your life. It is very attractive, and it seems to make all the sense in the world. It will appeal to your emotions; it will appeal to your sense of reason; but it will not make spiritual sense. And you will even find others who will agree with you that you need to walk this other path and go this other direction. But it will lead you away from the fullness of the will that I have for your life.

This is one of the reasons why it is so difficult for many Christians to stay on the path I have set before them. It is because so many things that they truly desire in life, so many of the things that they want to see happen appear to take place on these other paths, when in reality it is a lie, it is a diversion, it is an image and not the truth.

There are many of My children who live their whole lives walking on these other paths, thinking that they are accomplishing My will and yet they are out of My will. I say unto you, the only way that you are going to know the difference is to fight to stay in My Presence to become sensitive to Me. There are many of you who leaned to your own understanding, to your own rationale. There are many of you who are leaning in the direction of a misinterpretation of Scripture. But I say unto you, the only way you are going to know the difference is if you stay in My Presence.

Staying in My Presence does not simply mean that you acknowledge that I exist and that you profess Me as your Savior. Staying in My Presence does not simply mean that you attend church. Staying in My Presence means that you seek fellowship with Me. When you do this, I will be able to open your eyes, show you where you have gotten off the path of My will, and I will be able to show you how to get back. When you come back, you will pick up at the place where you left and continue from that point.

So hear what I say unto you, give heed to My Word. Get back on the path that I established for you. Do not be governed by your emotions or human reason. Get into My Presence. Seek me. Stay with Me and let Me impart to you what I see for your life so that you and I can be an agreement and walk together, says the Lord

Spiritual Warfare and the Middle East

What you are seeing in the Middle East is a reflection in the natural of what has been going on the realm of the Spirit. For years ago, I found voices in the land who would begin to speak forth and declare the coming spiritual battles. There were those who began to pray and those who would begin to intercede. I found those who would seek My face, and so I was able to begin to deliver them doctrines, truth, things that have been buried for centuries, things that the early Church was established upon, but Satan was effective in being able to hide them and to bury them. But I was able to find those who would dig into My Word and dig deep into My Presence so I could give to them these things, and once again they would be uncovered and revealed to My Church.

For you see, My Son said you will know the truth and the truth will make you free. Yet many of My Church have been deceived into seeking after a greater anointing. But I would have you know that the more truth you understand, the more anointing you will walk in, for My truth is anointing. And so, in the realm of the Spirit, there has been great warfare taking place. And what you are seeing in the Middle East is a reflection in the natural of what has been happening in the realm of the Spirit.

Now hear Me, says the Spirit of the Lord, hear Me closely. You must lay down your imaginations, and you must lay down these things that are being spoken to you and being sown into your lives through the media. For what is happening in the Middle East is not of man. Do you hear Me? It is not of man, for if you would search My Word you would find that these things are destined to take place. And yet people are blaming the president and blaming others and saying it is their fault that this is happening. I would have you know it is not their fault this is happening. This is a result in the natural of what has been taking place in the realm of the Spirit.

Now hear Me, for there are voices in your land who are saying we should lay down arms and we should quit what is happening in the Middle East. Know that those voices are a reflection of the nay-sayers in My Church who are saying there is no greater anointing, there is no end-time revival. The nay-sayers in My Church are saying that these teachings of spiritual warfare and conflict are not of God. But I would have you know that in these last days there is going to be greater and greater spiritual warfare because I have some in My Church who are not going to give up; they are not going to stop. They are going to press deeper into Me, and they are going to be equipped and armed with the weapons of spiritual warfare, and they are going to wage war against the camp of the enemy. For I said that the gates of hell shall not prevail against My truth as it goes forth.

Now hear Me: the battle is not over in the Middle East in the natural. It is going to continue to rage, for it is a spiritual warfare that is taking place. Many lives have been lost in the natural. But in the realm of the Spirit there are those in My Church who have been lost; their spiritual lives have been lost as they have walked away from Me and away from My grace and embraced other gods, just as My Word said would happen. They are seeking to have their itching ears scratched, and in the process, they are beginning to turn from the faith and give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils. For just as you are losing lives in the natural, I am losing lives in the realm of the Spirit.

Now hear Me. There is much more warfare to take place in the realm of the natural, and many more lives are going to be lost. What you would call victory in the Middle East is not to be, because, you see, the victory that is going to be won in the Middle East will not be according to the plans of man but will be according to the plans of Me, says Almighty God. The victory that is going to be won in the Middle East, it is being won now. For what you do not know is that the spiritual warfare has begun to turn. And the tide in this battle is turning in favor of My Kingdom. There are cities in the Middle East that are closed off to those from the west, but they are not closed off to My Gospel. And I have been able to get My voices into these cities and into these regions, and the Gospel has been preached.

And I want you to know this night, that there is great increase in the Kingdom of God because of what is happening in the Middle East. For the warfare in the natural has proved to be a diversion to those in the Middle East who would keep the Gospel out, and now, because of this diversion in the natural, the Gospel is penetrating into the darkness of the Middle East and the Gospel is being spread. There are thousands upon thousands upon thousands of Muslims who have turned from Allah and embraced My Son Jesus Christ.

Now, in the days to come, it is absolutely critical that you seek My Face because your enemy is aware of all the ground that he is losing in the Middle East. His attack has been turned to this nation. This is why your upcoming elections are so critical. Hear Me, says the Spirit of the Lord. If you do not listen to My voice and let Me guide you into the voting booth and guide you into your vote, and if you put the wrong person in office, it is going to open the door for greater spiritual conflict in this nation than anything you have ever known. There will be a suppression and an oppression from the kingdom of darkness against the Body of Christ. Do not walk in deception; hear Me, says the Lord. If you vote because of race, if you vote because of financial issues, if you vote because of what seems to make sense to you, you will vote the wrong way. You must listen to Me, and I will tell you who to vote for at every level in these elections, from the presidency on down.

You must close your eyes to the things of the natural and open your ears to the things of the Spirit, and My voice will speak and you will hear Me, and you will know what to do and how to cast your vote. You must intercede. You must pray. You must bow your knee before Me and come before My throne of grace. You must become more serious about your walk in Me than you ever have before. Because in these last days, I desire to pour out an anointing through My children that will be comparable to that which you read about in the Book of Acts.

My Son said that if you will believe in Him and have faith in Him that the works that He did you shall do also. And I tell you the day has come to where I am going to be able to do this in a way not seen since the Book of Acts. Every one of you who has been washed by the blood of My Son, every one of you who has been filled with the anointing of My Holy Spirit, you have the potential to do these works. And I want you to know this night, religion does not have the right to dictate the path that you walk. If you will seek Me, and if you will apply the truth I have revealed in My Word and do the things that will cause you to change spiritually and conform to the image of My Son, you will be able to do the works of My Son.

For My Word says I am not a respecter of persons; I am not respecter of age, for did I not say that on your sons and your daughters I will pour out My Spirit? You no longer have the time to play, to waste your time doing other things. I am calling you to a place of seeking Me. And if you do, you will begin to see more victories and more gains in the realm of the Spirit than you have ever anticipated. For the army of the Lord is rising up in greater anointing and greater power, and great miracles are on the brink of taking place.

This world is not going to be won by your church attendance; this world is going to be won by the image of My Son being lived through you. So great warfare is taking place in the realm of the Spirit, and if you will seek Me, I will pour out into your life that which you have only read about and only heard about. You will become a living, breathing, walking reflection of My Son in this world, say the Spirit of the Lord.

PD070708 – Jul 8, 2007 A Spiritual Battle

As My Son said in His Word that this Gospel would be preached throughout the world then the end, over the years many have interpreted that to mean that missionaries would be sent to the four corners of this world, that the Gospel would be preached in that method. But in years past, no one, no one, had a clue what was to come concerning media. For you see, with the advent of satellite and the Internet, the Gospel can be preached around this world with no one leaving their home. This means that no longer are thousands of dollars required and tens of thousands of dollars needed to send missionaries and evangelists and pastors and apostles to go into regions and preach and deliver My Gospel.

The technology exists for the Gospel to be preached anywhere: portable generators, screens that can be set up, computers that can receive signals from satellites and broadcast the Gospel. So many things are happening, so many methods are available for the Gospel to be spread. And the Gospel is being spread throughout this world faster than it ever has in all of recorded human history.

Millions of people are hearing about My Son and salvation in ways that man has never dreamed. And because of this, millions are coming to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior. And this is increasing, for it is now possible to broadcast miracle services anywhere in the world for even the darkest regions see and to hear. When I say darkest regions, I speak of those regions which are spiritually dark.

Now hear Me, says the Lord. This has captured the attention of the enemy. And there are things that are happening in the realm of the Spirit that few know. There is a confederation of principalities that has been initiated. The prince over the principality of what you know as Russia, the prince over the principality of what you know as Eastern Europe and Middle Europe, the prince over the principality of the Middle East, the prince over the principality of the United States and others have joined together in a way that they have never joined together.

For you see, in My Body there is unity, but in the camp of the enemy there is disunity. There have been times throughout history when even spiritual forces turned against each other. But there is a unity that has been brought about in the realm of the spirit as these principalities have begun formulating plans, plans to bring down the United States. And the plans that have been implemented in the Spirit by the principality of Russia, the Middle East, Europe, and the United States are being implemented here in this nation. And there are voices, politicians who have in their hearts and minds the implementation of those plans, and yet they do not know that they have been influenced by spiritual voices of the enemy.

For you see, the frontal attacks have never worked in this nation. The only thing that has ever worked has been an attack that has come from within and has risen up in the political arena. And over the years and over the decades, politicians have been placed—voted in—to places of authority. And they have begun to rule with an iron fist that is covered with flesh. The plans of these principalities have been laid forth, and right now, governmental leaders are being maneuvered into positions that these principalities hope will become positions of leadership within many nations, including this country, the United States.

If this happens, their voices will speak as one because they will be speaking what they are hearing from the voices of the Spirit. This is a very dangerous time. However, if you will read the book of Revelation, you will see revealed in its pages a unity within the kingdom of darkness. The forerunner of that is being formed now to try and bring about the downfall of the United States. For you see, if the United States collapses the voice of Christianity will be muffled.

I am telling you this to let you know that you need to pray. For you see, these principalities are desperately hoping you do not hear this message, and they are desperately hoping that those who hear will not take heed. But I say unto you, My Son has already given to you the power, anointing, and victory in the spiritual realm. You have the ability to bring confusion into these plans. You have the ability to stop this thing.

There are many politicians who have given themselves over to evil, but they don't know it. In their minds, they believe that they are truly doing what is best for this country. You must stop looking at the politicians as the source of the evil in this country. You must wage warfare in the realm of the Spirit. There are even those who profess My Son as Savior, politicians who are born again, and yet they have begun listening to the voices of evil and they do not realize it.

And I say this to you this night to warn you and to encourage you. What is happening is not My will. However, you have the ability to shut this down. If you will begin to pray and if you will begin to speak, yes, to prophesy into the Spirit, it will release Me and it will release angels to do a work that will put this thing to a stop. All is not lost. There are many who are saying that this next election is doomed. I say unto you, pay close attention to what you are saying. It is an election, not an appointment; this means that you have the ability to elect individuals into positions of authority. I have not appointed evil to reign over righteousness.

Therefore, do not give heed to the voices who continually speak doom over this nation, even if those voices are coming from your pulpit. Do not give heed to voices that say there is no hope. Do not give heed to voices that say all is lost. I say unto you that if you will stand up and wage warfare in the realm of the spirit, you can bring about a change that is going to absolutely confound the camp of the enemy.

As I said to you before, the enemy's greatest hope is that you will remain complacent and allow him to work his work. But if you will shake off the dust of complacency and if you will begin to speak My will, to speak My desire, My heart, using your authority in this realm, I will be able to add an anointing to your word and to your prayers that will bring about change.

Many have said that the responsibility to change a nation rests on My shoulders. I say it does not. It rests on the shoulders of the citizens of that nation. For you see, when you have the ability to vote and put the righteous into office, My Word will come to pass that the people rejoice when the righteous rule. But if you do not do this, then whatever takes place is your fault, not Mine. I will do everything I can within the authority that you release to bring about change.

There are things happening in the realm of the Middle East even now. There are principalities at work trying to formulate new plans regarding military interaction. And I say unto you, intercede, pray, speak life into what the world calls a dead situation. You are not going to change the future relative to what I have spoken in My Word; but you can create atmospheres of change that will bring about the salvation of many millions more.

For you see, there is a great rumbling that is taking place even at this time within the nation of China. For centuries that nation has been dark; it has been closed to the Gospel. And yet because of the prayers of intercession, churches have been able to be established in that country. Even now, the spiritual forces that have been in control for so long in China in the realm of the government are losing their grip. To respond to this, they are mounting a greater attack. Now this attack will take place, but its intensity can be lessened through prayer and intercession.

There are many other things are happening in this world. The kingdom of darkness is greatly concerned. For My Church, the remnant of those who are truly seeking after Me has captured the attention of the enemy. One of the things that has caused this to happen is the increase of worship in My Church. For so many years, people were trained to sing songs out of a hymnal, and they sang not realizing the fullness of what they were singing. But in the recent years, you have seen many psalmists rise up and write songs that are directing the attention of the singers to Me.

And churches that for so long were bound by their hymnals are now changing their method of worship. Even those churches, who do not believe in being filled with My Holy Spirit are learning new avenues of worship. And lest you think I will not honor that worship because they do not believe in being filled with the Holy Spirit, I would say to you, if they are worshiping Me out of a sincere heart, it is a pleasing fragrance to Me before My throne. And because there has been this great increase in worship in My Church, it has enabled Me to begin to move in a powerful and mighty way in this world.

Things are being lined up now for the return of My Son. Time is short, but before He returns, the greatest level of My glory that has ever been seen by humanity is going to be released. I am going to pour this glory out in a way that is going to capture the attention of even those who do not believe in My existence.

So I say to you this night, take heed to My Word. Take action. Do these things that you have heard Me say, and know that I am there beside you to move on your behalf. I will move, and if you do these things, I say to you this night, you are going to see an absolutely incredible move by Me, the Almighty God, in this world. So yield to Me. Stand strong in your faith. Do not become weak. Do not become weary. Do not become frightful. For I will strengthen you with My glory and I will strengthen you with My anointing, and you will see Me move in your lives and your families, in your churches, in your nation, and this world, says the Lord.

Answers in God's Presence

There are many in My Church who are seeking answers. They are running to and fro looking for answers that are real. They are watching Christian television, listening on the radio, they are buying books, tapes, CD's, constantly seeking, constantly looking. I would have you know that most of the churches that name Me as Savior are not genuinely teaching people how to find out what is real. They are teaching them things that are good, but when it comes to having that deep relationship with Me, coming to a place of deeper understanding concerning the things of the Spirit, I do not have many churches which are doing that.

And I would say unto you, that it is only through a deep, growing personal relationship and fellowship with Me that you can come to understand the things that are true, for many truths are released and taught in My Body. There are many who don't understand this because they don't take the time to understand; they reject. There are many who are in a comfort zone of religion. They will spend eternity with Me, but they will live this life in a way that is void of greater understanding of who they are in Me.

And I say to you, that which is real is confirmed in My Presence. When you are in the presence of religion, religion will confirm itself. When you are in My Presence, I will confirm truth; I will confirm that what is real. So hear Me and seek Me for those things which are true. Seek for those things which will produce in you that which I called you to be. I love you and it is My desire to see you develop into the fullness of who you are in Me. So seek Me. Seek My Presence. Come deeper into Me, and the answers that you desire will be there, says the Lord

What to See

As I prepared the sermon “Keeping Abraham ‘Abraham.’” I asked God the question, “What do you want me to see?” What follows is His answer.

I want you to see this ministry touching the lives of thousands. I want you to see them coming in the doors. I want you to see in the Spirit what I see in the natural [the Spirit is His natural]. I want you to see the fulfillment of what I have called you to do. I want you to see yourself praying and worshipping like you have never done before. I want you to see people being faithful and committed to helping this vision be fulfilled. I want you to see the bank account overflowing. I want you to see My Word flowing out of this place like a mighty, rushing river at flood stage. I want you to see this region swept up in My glory. I want you to see the fire of My words coming out of your mouth and illuminating the darkness. I want you to see more than you have ever imagined. I want you to live and breathe like this is a world-changing ministry. I want you to see My hand upon you with My glory flowing through you. I want you to see magnificent wisdom being passed on to others.

I want you to stop looking and meditating on what you see in your natural. There are many who are failing you, but they are failing Me more. There are many who have turned from you, but they first turned from Me. You are not to strive over them or weep in sadness. My hand is still upon them and I am watching over them; you are not their Christ.

I want you to look beyond what you see as possible. Do not let the foolish words of others become your discouragement and the stones of the path you walk. I want you to let My Words be the paved road of your future and destiny. I can raise up an army of people, yes, a multitude, to help you as you walk that road.

I want you to see long life and prosperity. I want you to see many people being sent forth from this ministry to touch the world. I want you to see all of these things and more. I want you to speak of them as though they were so. I want your words to line up with My will. Hear what I say, see what I say, and speak what I say.

God Moves Through Worship

I have said in My Word that I seek for those who will worship Me in spirit and in truth. Now think of those words. If I am seeking for someone, do you not think it is for the purpose of doing something wonderful and magnificent in that person's life? And if I say that I seek for people who will worship Me in spirit and in truth, then you must understand that when I find those who are truly worshipping Me in spirit and in truth—going beyond simply singing songs about Me, but worshipping Me—I will do great and mighty things on that person's behalf.

And if I can find a congregation which will worship Me in spirit and in truth—going beyond simply singing songs about Me but to Me—then know this: I will do great and mighty things in the midst of that congregation.

In the realm of the Spirit, worship has been far undervalued. For you see, in the realm of the Spirit, when you begin to worship Me, the glory that flows from you out of your heart, out of your spirit as you worship in spirit and truth, creates a barrier against the enemy. In the realm of the Spirit, even as you were worshipping this day, devils were dropping to their knees because of the glory that was released from this place. You were doing warfare on behalf of this region. You were doing warfare on behalf of churches that do not worship Me.

For you see, the more you worship and the more you praise Me out of your heart and out of the depths of your spirit is the more glory that rises up from within you. For I release My glory from Me and from My Presence through your heart and through your worship. You will be able to release greater and greater levels of glory. I have tried so hard over the centuries to get My children to understand this, but so many prefer their tradition. So many prefer songs that do not speak truth about Me or what I have done, or who they are or who I am to them. I have tried so hard though so many of My preachers, those who will listen to Me and those who will speak My truth to get this truth out to My children, century after century.

Yet in these last days, more of My children are starting to listen. More of My children are starting to hear. And I say to you this day that worship is absolutely a key in the end-time revival. Churches who will choose to worship Me and lay aside their flesh, lay aside their pride, lay aside their feelings; Christians who will join together in these churches to worship Me, just to worship Me, will experience more of My glory and will tear down strongholds that have been erected for years and even centuries.

For those churches that are located in regions of great religious oppression, such as yours, are not going to be set free simply through good preaching. For if that were true, the freedom would already have been experienced. The key to this is going to be worship. For you see there is a principality that has blanketed this area with darkness and spiritual oppression, and it has existed for centuries. But I say unto you, if you will worship, if you will worship—yes, even if this one single church will truly worship and truly pour out of their heart that which I have deposited within—you can begin to tear down these strongholds. You can begin to drive these powers and principalities to their knees, and a glory will be released in this region that will bring about revival in a way that has never been seen.

So I say unto you this day, do not take lightly this worship. Do not take lightly the times that you gather together simply to worship Me. For when you do, I will show up, and I will touch your lives; I will touch families. I will touch this church, and I will touch this region says the Lord

Trust God for Answers

There are many of you who face what you perceive to be insurmountable problems. You lay in bed at night and you wonder, “When will this end?” But you see, from My perspective it has already ended. For am I not the Alpha and Omega? Do I not know the beginning from the end? Therefore, I have already seen the end of your problem. I have already seen the solution; I know what it will take.

For you to receive this kind of understanding, you need to learn to walk in My peace. For you see, when you are walking in My peace, the frustration, the discouragement, and the disappointment that you feel will not be there. You cannot solve your problems. You might be able to postpone some of them, but inevitably they come back, and many of you have experienced this. But I say unto you, if you will learn to walk in My peace, I will be able to more clearly give you the answer. And I will be able to more effectively work in your midst to bring about the manifestation of the solution.

But as long as you continue to hold onto these things and as long as you continue to try to work these things out on your own, you will not see the answers; you will not see the fullness of the deliverance take place; you will not see the manifestation of change. And so I say unto you, I know the answer for every problem you will ever face. I already know the answer to the problems you will face in the future. Learn to trust Me. Learn to truly trust Me. When you do, you will begin to walk more in My peace. I will be able to help you see what I see. You will begin to understand that your problems are not insurmountable. For is anything too difficult for Me? I can give to you what you need, but you must learn to trust Me so that you can receive from Me, says the Lord.

Worship and Increased Glory

My glory is like unto a medicine. When a person is fighting a sickness or a pain and they take medicine to relieve that sickness or that pain, the blood system carries that medicine throughout the entire body, not just to the place of the affliction. And that medicine flows through the blood stream continually. As the blood flows through the body, it carries that medicine, and every part of the body is affected and touched by that medicine.

In the same way, when you worship and My glory is released, it touches every part of your being. It touches you in the realm of your body, spirit, and your soul.

This is why many times after a worship service you feel refreshed and renewed, strengthened because My glory has touched you. It is why many people experience a manifestation of healing during worship, because My glory is touching every part of your being.

My worship, that which you give unto Me, is very powerful and it is very needful for you, for as you worship Me, you are letting Me do a work in your life. Even those who do not understand about worship, when they are in the atmosphere of glory released, it will touch them. This is why there is so much in My Word about praise and worship. It is to encourage you to worship Me so that I can work great works in your life and in your church.

When your emotions are telling you to stay away, this is when you need to fight those emotions and come and be here. And even if you do not feel like you can worship, get in the midst of the worship and let Me touch you; let Me bring a refreshing to your soul, a renewing to your mind.

Worship is so important. And you are worshipping, for I do not find many churches that will worship as you. And as you continue to worship and diligently pursue Me in the area of worship, you will rise to new levels of worship and new experiences as a result of worship. It is so important that you do this to create atmospheres wherein I can work and touch the lives of people who will come to visit and will come to be here.

There will be those who will come to be here and they will visit, and they may only stay for one service, but I will be able to touch them in that one service if you will be diligent to worship Me. Oh, how I love it when My children worship! For then they are able to experience Me in a deeper level.

So be encouraged: you cannot sing one song of worship without Me being pleased. I will move in the midst of your worship. So worship Me. Whenever you come together in this place for a time of worship, focus with all of your heart, mind, everything that is in you—focus on Me, and you will see Me increase the levels of My glory in your midst.

You Are Winning the Battle

Many of you have been discouraged because of the attendance. Many of you have been wondering what is happening, what is going on. But I want you to know that I have spoken to many, many people to be here, and I have called many, many people to be here. And there are some who have come here and this was their destiny, this was the place to which I was leading them. But they refused to listen to Me, and they listened to the voice of their soul and to other voices, and they left.

There are those I have been speaking to, to try and bring them here, but they have not listened. So be encouraged this night to know I am not sitting back and doing nothing. But I cannot force people to do what they will not do.

But know this: every step of faith that you take into Me, every step of faith that you take within this place, I am honoring it, and I am taking note of it. And you are not working this work in vain; you are working a great work. Together you are still laying a broader, thicker foundation for the work that I want to do in the future.

So again I say to you, be encouraged; do not give up, do not stop, do not allow yourself to become frustrated. Let My joy strengthen you from day-to-day. Let My voice be the voice that calms your emotions. You are not fighting a losing battle; you are experiencing victory, the victory that was won by My Son Jesus. So do not give up. Keep fighting. Keep going forward, for the day is coming, if you do this, you will see a great move of My Spirit.

Worship in Heaven and Earth

There are many in My church who have often wondered what it would be like to be here with Me in Heaven, worshipping Me with all the saints who have gone before. I would have you know that I thoroughly enjoy that worship. And for those who are worshipping Me, those who are here, it is truly a magnificent experience.

However, when you worship Me on earth, you literally bathe My Presence with My worship. It creates an atmosphere up here that is not exactly the same as what is created by those who are worshipping Me up here. For you see, the ones who are here who are worshipping Me are not facing all the hindrances of circumstances, problems, sickness, emotions, and all of things that would try to hinder and interfere with worship.

But you, for you to worship Me from the very depth of your heart, you have to lay aside the distracting thoughts. You must force yourself to focus on Me. You have to lay aside the problems, the troubles, the struggles, the emotions, all of these things that would work to distract you. You even have to close your eyes at times to maintain your focus on Me. And because of that, you have to fight at times to worship Me. And that is why the worship you offer up to Me means so very much: it is because you have to press through all the hindrances of the world and of the natural to release the worship.

It means much to Me for those who are here with Me to worship, but yours means much to Me in a different way. As you worship Me from your heart, laying aside anything that would hinder or interfere, it does create an atmosphere for Me to work in your life.

So take your worship seriously, because that is how I take it. Do not dismiss the times that you gather together as [being] just times to sing songs. Take every opportunity that is afforded you to worship Me in spirit and in truth so that you can create an atmosphere wherein I can work to bring about My will. And the more that you worship, the more that you will experience My Presence.

Righteousness Versus Evil

The Lord said the greatest clash between evil and righteousness that has ever taken place in this country is on the verge of taking place.

As He was sharing this with me, what I saw were two opposing armies on horseback. On both sides there are far too many to count: thousands upon thousands upon thousands. On the one side, they're all on dark black horses. They're dressed in the furs of animals; they're like barbarians.

The furs of the animals represent the killing, the stealing, and the destroying they have done over the years. They're screaming and they're yelling; they're taunting and they're cursing. Their eyes are filled with a hatred; their intent is to obliterate. They have no desire to take any prisoners at all. All they want to do is annihilate.

On the other side there is an army on white horses; their armor is shining in its brilliance. They're not saying a word, but instead, their swords are stretched forth. Their eyes are fixed; there is a gaze in their eyes where they're staring straight ahead. They're not looking to the right; they're not looking to the left. And they're charging without reservation directly into the oncoming charge of the enemy.

The Lord said the hordes on the one side, on the dark horses, represent the evil, and the soldiers with the shining armor on the white horses represent righteousness.

Learn from My Word, for I have given you an example of this battle to come in My Word in the Old Testament. For as Moses sat on a rock and watched the armies of righteousness oppose the armies of evil, as long as his hands were lifted, symbolic of worship and praise and surrender unto Me, the armies of righteousness won. But if they began to drop, the armies of evil began to prevail.

And it took Aaron and it took Hur to stand on either side of Moses to hold his arms up. This is symbolic of My Body being in support of one another, holding each other up and being in submission to Me, worship, prayer unto Me. And as long as Moses arms were upheld, the armies of righteousness prevailed, and eventually they won.

Hear Me this day, for this battle is on the verge of taking place. There has never been anything like it in the history of this nation. If evil prevails, this nation will never recover. And if this nation never recovers, the world will never recover.

You are at a crossroads in history. And I say to you this day, you can stop this and righteousness can prevail, but you must come before Me. And you must submit your own plans to Me, and you must submit your will and your desires to Me so that they become Mine. You must take a stand against this in the realm of the Spirit. If you do, righteousness shall prevail, for I have given you the weapons of the warfare that you need to engage the enemy.

There is only one thing that the enemy is counting on, one hope, and that is all, and that is the complacency of My Church. The enemy is counting on Christians not doing what they need to do and laying down their weapons and giving up, for that is the only hope that the enemy has in this battle.

So I say to you, take heed to what I have said and listen closely, for destruction is at your door. But you can turn this thing around if you will come before My throne of grace and allow My power to pour through your humbled heart and bring about the victory.

My grace is sufficient for you for all of your needs. For those of you who would think that it is an impossible thing for you to give to Me the time that you need to give to Me, to come before My throne of grace to enable Me to pour My power through you, I would say unto you: My grace is sufficient to help you in this.

If you will take a step of faith, you will be able to access the grace that will help you be strong in coming to Me. I need you to come to Me so that I can work through you. So, make a decision: there is nothing more important in your life than your relationship with Me. And if you will come to Me, My grace released into you will help you develop that relationship so that My flow through you can change from a trickle of My power and anointing to a rushing, mighty wind, to an overflowing river. And through you, I can bring about change.

Stepping Deeper Into Glory

You are stepping deeper into My glory and My Presence. You are doing this in part through your worship, for you see, the fullness of the path into My Presence and My glory includes walking in an area of worship where few have walked.

You are making progress, and I say to you this day, do not stop your worship. For I have spoken to you many times over the years about your praise and about your worship; many of you have taken heed. And some of you, these things have not yet broken forth out of your heart, and it's because in part, they have never truly worshipped Me the way that they could, the way that I desire. For you see, as I am seeking people to worship Me, it is not simply so that I hear your worship, but it is because your worship enables Me to work in you in a very special and unique way.

So I say these things again to you to encourage you to worship Me, to motivate you to worship Me. Lay aside your flesh, lay aside your emotions, lay aside anything and everything that would hinder you from truly worshipping Me.

I am looking to take entire congregations into the depth of My glory, and every church that will worship Me will continue to walk that path. Worship is absolutely a vital key to experiencing all that I have for you. I make Myself available to you; come into My Presence. Come deeper; come deeper through your praise and your worship, and I promise you, that if you do not give up on this, the day will come when you will break through into a new dimension of My glory and My Presence.

Worship for Strength

The day is coming when you are going to be glad that you have learned how to praise Me and how to worship Me. For the day is coming when you are going to realize more than ever the value of your praise and worship as you lift it up to Me.

The day is coming when you are going to realize just how important it is for you to worship Me in spirit and in truth. For you see, the day is coming when you are going to need the strength and support that comes through praise and worship as you pour out your heart unto Me.

You see, as you worship Me, there is a type of spiritual strength that is released that comes no other way but through worship. And the day is coming when you are going to realize how much you need that strength. And because you will have praised Me and worshipped Me, and because you have laid down your flesh and taken charge of your emotions and forced them to bow the knee to what your spirit wants to do, you are going to understand how to enter into a place with Me. For My strength abounds and My glory is ever-present.

And the day is coming that you are going to be so glad that you have trained yourself to praise Me and to worship Me and to lay other things aside, because you will need that strength and you will need My Presence in a way that you have never known.

So I say to you this day, continue to praise Me and worship Me. Continue to condition your spirit to enter into that special place with Me through your worship. Continue to do this and continue to prepare yourself for those days when you are going to need Me more than ever. But through your worship and through your praise you will find Me—I will be there for you. I will release unto you more strength and more glory than you have ever known.

Seeking Many Things

You have been seeking for many things throughout your life. You have been seeking for what is real, what is truth. But I want you to know that the only thing that is real, the only thing that is true is that which is established in My Word. Man will lead you astray, but My Word will never lead you astray.

You have placed your hope and your faith in a lot of things; some of them, you have found to be a waste of your time—they were not genuine. What I am saying to you is this: If you really want to know Me, if you really want to know what works, if you really want to know what will bring about in your life that which is supposed to happen, your answers are in My Word.

You need to turn to My Word more than you need to turn to people. But you also need to turn to the people who are going to point you to My Word, and there are very, very few people in My Body who truly know how to turn you in the direction of truth the way it must be discovered and learned.

So, you can continue in the direction that you are going, and I will always love you, and you will discover some truth along the way. But there is a better way, a more meaningful way, a more lasting way. A way that is going to bring about permanent change in your life according to My perfect will for you.

So get into My Word and be willing to accept that which I have established as eternal truth. And the things that you have been seeking, you will find what you need.

Religion Leads Astray

Religion and not sin is the greatest corruption and corrupter in My Body. There are those of you even in this place this day—religion has touched your life and replaced Me. You have involved yourself with religion, religious activities, religious systems, and religious order but never truly with Me.

Now this is not all entirely your fault because those who a part of that religious structure did not lead you in the way that you needed to be led. They impacted you with their personality and their belief system that was arrived at through their intellectual study of My existence. And I would have you know that this day I am speaking to you and that the religion you have looked at has been wrong.

What I desire is a deep, personal relationship with you. I am telling this to you this day because this day represents a crossroads in your life. For many years you have seen religion; you have watched it, been involved with it, but never has that religion spoken to you the way that I am speaking to you this day.

And now I say to you, lay that religion down. All of the foolishness that you have seen in it, all the silliness that you have seen in it—leave it behind you. Do not even consider it from this day forward. And do not use it as an excuse to avoid being in My Presence or to avoid being in a church that is genuinely seeking Me.

Religion will never take you into a place with Me that I desire that you be. Relationship with Me, that is what is real and that is what is genuine. There are great spiritual works that I have done; there are great spiritual works that I would long to do, but too many of the churches that you have seen and too many of the churches that you have been exposed to do not understand this. So therefore they do not know how to walk with Me the way I desire, and they do not know how to flow with My Presence the way that I desire.

I am telling you this day that if you will lay all of that down and give Me a chance, I will prove Myself to you. But you must be serious in this, and you must approach Me with a genuine attitude of desire and curiosity to know Me. If you do, I will be able to reveal Myself to you in a way that religion has never done.

So hear what I am saying to you this day and know that I am speaking to you. So hear Me and pay attention and move in this direction that I have spoken to you this day. And I tell you that your life will change for the good.

PD070825C – Aug 25, 2007
Time for God

You do not know how close you are to breaking into a new level of My glory and My Presence. You must continue what you are doing; you must increase what you are doing. There must be greater intensity from you.

I will not ask you to do anything that you cannot do. This includes the time that I would ask you to spend with Me, either as a congregation or as an individual. I will not ask you to do more than what you can do.

Therefore, if I am calling you together as a congregation into My Presence to pray and to worship and to hear from My Word, or if I am calling you as an individual into My Presence to spend time with Me, know this, that what I am calling you to do, I have already established the plan to help you do it. You will not be put out and you will not lose anything; you will only gain if you do what I say to do.

But it is the world in which you live, the world that you have constructed for yourself, the circumstance in which you live, man of which you have created for yourself; all of these things which mislead you and deceive you into thinking that you cannot give to me that which I ask of you.

But again I tell you, I will never ask you to give me what you cannot give me. I will never ask you to do what you cannot do. So rest assured in knowing that if you will obey me you will discover that you are able to do more than you thought you could do. For I am the creator of time itself; do you not think that I can help you work within the time you have to accomplish that which you need to do?

I can work in such a way to where it will almost seem like I have manipulated and altered time for you. Do what I call you to do. Respond...obey me...and know that I will move in your life.

PD070909 – Sep 9, 2007
New Levels in God

For those who seek me, I will take you to different levels of your walk with Me. For as you seek Me, I will lead you and I will bring you to a place, a place of change, a place of newness. It is going to require an adjustment on your part, for you will be in a place where you have never been.

There are many who have sought Me and allowed Me to bring them to a place of newness in Me, the next level of their relationship with Me and walk in Me. But once they arrived there, they stopped, and in some cases they even turned back.

If you are going to go further in Me than you have ever been, you need to understand that it requires change. Not just change within you as far as your spiritual growth is concerned, but change in the fullness of your responsibility to Me, change in the fullness of how I will work through you. For every level of change brings with it a new level of how I can work through you to bring about My will in this world. Change requires much, and there are those who have given much. There are those who have come to the place of change and begun to realize how much more they were going to have to put forth, how much more was required by Me of them, and they did not want to go any further.

But I say to you, if you could see in the realm of the Spirit, what I see and the direction that I am taking you, you would understand that it is worth every moment of fight that it would take for you to firmly establish yourself at each new level of your walk with Me. And if you do that, if you fight this fight, then you will begin to experience more of Me than you have known, and you will begin to see the things you have longed for come forth in your life.

So be strong in Me and fight the fight that is required to become firmly established in each new level of your spiritual growth and maturity, and you will see the fullness of what I have desired take place in your life.

PD070916A – Sep 16, 2007
Filled With Glory

I have said in My Word that My glory will be known throughout this world, just as I have also said in My Word that judgment begins in the house—My house—the house of God. My glory must first be known in My temple. I am speaking of you, those of you who have My life, those of you who have chosen to accept My Son Jesus as your Lord and Savior. I want you to know My glory first, for you are the vessels who are to be the containers of My glory, the vessels through whom My glory is to be poured.

For My glory to be known throughout this earth means that not only will the people of this world know that I am God but also that My glory can be poured into human vessels, those who have totally surrendered themselves to Me. You can know My glory, but there are many of you who do not know what that means, do not know what My glory is really all about. But I would say unto you that there are very few in My Body who truly understand what My glory is all about.

As you grow in Me and as you mature in Me you will come to the place of knowing what My glory is all about and what it really means. You will also know what it means to be filled with My glory. This world will be filled with My glory, but I want My glory to first fill you, for you are truly the temples, the temples in which I dwell. As My glory begins to fill you, then My glory will begin to fill your churches. And as My glory begins to fill your churches, it will begin to spill out and spread throughout this world.

As I have said in My Word, “Come ye out from among them;” you must separate yourselves from this world, from the things of this world that do not line up with Me. And the more that you do that, the more that you come into My Presence, is the more that My glory will fill you. And the day will come that if you will do this, you will have an experience with Me that far surpasses anything you have ever imagined in your mind. It will far surpass anything you believe you have witnessed in others. For I will make Myself known to you, and you will have a personal encounter with Almighty God, the Creator of the universe. I will make Myself known to you and you will experience Me.

So seek Me, seek Me with all diligence. Seek Me and allow Me to fill you with My glory so this world will truly know that I am God.

PD070916B – Sep 16, 2007
No Depression in Worship

There are times that you have wondered why one worship service is different from the other. There are times that you have felt as though one worship service is more filled with Me than other worship services. However, I have said that I am seeking those who will worship Me in spirit and in truth; therefore, if you are worshipping Me in spirit and in truth, then you should know that I am there.

But I will tell you what makes the difference in many of your worship services. The enemy comes in very subtly to put a blanket of depression over many of you. I am not the author of depression. None of My children have ever lived with depression and received it from Me. Depression is something that is not a work of Mine, it is not a work of My grace, and it is not a work of My life.

And yet the enemy will many times work to put a blanket of depression over you as you come into a service, even before you leave your home. And it is because of that, many of you at times will feel as though there is a blanket over the service. Well, it is not because I am not responding to your worship, because I have said in My Word that I will respond to your worship; I said I will inhabit your praises.

Your emotions play a big role in how much you allow Me to do during your times of praise and worship. And I say to you that you can experience Me in a wonderful fashion in every worship service, but you are the key factor in this. If you feel as though there is a blanket, something suppressing, something holding back, a depression, then you must investigate your own feelings, your own attitudes—why you are feeling this way, because there is no depression, there is no holding back, there is no suppression in My Presence.

So therefore, those times where you feel like a worship service is going nowhere, those are the times when you must press through those feelings and worship Me with an earnestness that is going forth from your heart; worship Me with a diligence that is all-encompassing, all-encompassing of your feelings. You must rise above those feelings and rise above that depression—that feeling of being held back. You must do this. For when you worship Me, and truly worship Me in spirit and in truth, I promise you that I will be there and I am there.

So, you never have to experience a “down” worship service. You can always experience an “up” worship service. My Presence will be known in different ways in your worship services. But when you truly worship Me, I will always be there. So do not let yourself get distracted by what you perceive; press into My Presence with your worship. Shake off the shackles of feelings that would hold you back and know that I am there.

PD070923 – Sep 23, 2007
Overcoming Frustration

There are many of My children who are frustrated because of what they perceive I may not be doing in their lives, wondering where I am and what is My next move. But there is no real need for this frustration. Many of you have questions: “What am I supposed to do; where am I supposed to go; what’s next in my life?” You love Me, and I know you love Me, but you are seeking for more.

What I want to do is give you a revelation of your life—what I see—to help you understand what it is that I am looking at inside you. I want you to know what I see, to understand where you are in your walk with Me. The only way that I can do this is if you spend time in My Presence.

Many of you are spending some time with Me, but you still have this frustration. You need to spend more time with Me; you need to spend more time with Me in My Word, in prayer, praying in the Spirit; you need to spend more time in worship. For you see, as you do this, you are going to learn how to recognize My voice more clearly. You are going to be able to discern the difference between your own emotions and spiritual promptings which I would do in your heart.

Now, this frustration can come to an end, because this frustration is really all about your not being able to clearly recognize My voice when I speak to you. I will lead you, and I will guide you in the way that you should go. And I will take you down paths of glory, and I will take you down roads of victory, and I will show you great and wonderful things that I will do in you and through you.

But you must first learn how to hear My voice. For you see, there are many who are going by their own voice, by their own reason, by what seems to be right to them. And a lot of the choices that they make are choices that look good and appear to have good results. But I tell you that this cannot continue, for the day will come when those people who many of you think are always making the right decisions and always making the choices—those people are going to stumble. And I am not telling you that they will fall into sin; what I am saying is, they are going to make some mistakes in their judgment and they are going to make some wrong decisions.

If you will turn to Me and spend more time with Me doing the things that I have said, then you will learn more clearly how to distinguish My voice and more clearly distinguish between My spiritual promptings and your own emotions. The more that you do this, the more the frustration is going to go away. The day will come when you will know what I am saying to you; you will know when to turn to the left and when to turn to the right. You will know when to stand still and when to move forward. You will know what I want you to do because you will be hearing Me and receiving instructions from Me.

So, again, to get past this frustration of not knowing what to do and where to go and all those sorts of things, spend more time with Me. Become acquainted with My leading and with My voice, and you will see the frustration go away.

PD070930A – Sept 30, 2007

Children—God’s Heritage

Your children are not your heritage; your children are the heritage of the Lord. You are to train a child up in the way he should go, not stay. Once you are the parent of a child—natural birth, adoption, whatever it would be—your responsibility is to point that child in the direction of Jesus Christ. If you try to change that child’s life, you are trying to become “God” to that child. You cannot do this.

God said that He knows every one of you in here. He knows what your children are doing; He knows what the future holds for them.

If you keep looking at the wrong choices they make, you are going to miss what I want to do in their lives. You cannot control them, and I will not control them. If they choose sin, this is not your responsibility, it is theirs. You cannot stop them from choosing sin.

I am not saying that you willingly release them to do whatever they desire. What I am saying is, turn them over to Me and let Me work in their lives. Because if you stand in between them and Me, I will not be able to work the completed work that I desire. They have to make their own choices concerning the life they want to live.

And as parents, you must reconcile in your heart right now that because your children have free will, they can choose to reject Me and spend eternity in hell. This is a hard thing that many parents do not want to hear. And I would ask you to keep in mind that I, sitting on the throne of eternity, have watched as countless millions have died and gone to hell in spite of the work My Son did for them.

If you think that your heart breaks at the thought of your child rejecting Me for eternity, think of the knowledge that I will carry with Me for all of eternity; the knowledge of the millions upon millions who are in eternal torment because they refused to respond to My call.

You must loose your children and let them go, but you must pray for them. The best way to hold onto them is to pray for them. For you have witnessed in your own lives that your constant “preaching” as they call it has never worked. For you see, if it were working, would you not see change now? And in many cases, you have actually pushed them further away from you.

But keep in mind that what they are rejecting is not you; they are rejecting My Presence, they are rejecting My life. The best thing that you can do for them is to draw closer to Me and allow Me to pour My love into you so that My love will flow through you to them the way that I desire. Stop looking at what they are or are not doing, and keep your eyes on Me. Keep your eyes on Me; stay focused on the work that I want to do in you. Stay focused on conforming to the image of My Son Jesus Christ so that they will see Christ in you, the hope of glory.

You love your children, but please keep this in mind: I love your children more than you can possibly imagine. I love them more than you [do] because My love is a Divine love; My love operates in Me in full capacity. You are still growing in this love. So know that I love them more than you will ever be able to understand that kind of love.

Do not give up, do not turn your back on them. Grow in My love and let that love flow through you to them, and pray for them and intercede for them. Do warfare on their behalf. Do not call them a lost cause, for have I not said in My Word that all things are possible with Me. You do not see their heart, I do.

So I say, change your focus. Look to Me, keep your eyes on Me and trust Me, and allow Me to work the work that I want to do.

Unforgiveness and Direction

I believe the Lord is telling me that unforgiveness has hindered the ability to perceive and understand His will. And the unforgiveness is being dealt with, being laid down permanently. It is like blinders are being removed from spiritual vision so that a very clear understanding of what to do and how to do it can be received.

PD070930C – Sept 30, 2007
Worship and Answers

Many of My children are struggling, struggling in ways wherein they should not be struggling. Many of you have fought battles in your emotions, and at times you felt as though you were completely losing. And I would say to you, for many of you, the one thing that is going to carry you through is worship. I would say to you that your worship will be the thing that will sustain you through the difficult times.

For some people it is their prayer life, for other people it is My Word, meditating and confessing My Word. But then there are those who just cannot seem to shake the weariness, the tiredness, the frustration from the battle. I tell you this night that worship is the thing that will carry you through; it will sustain you.

You need to worship; you need to praise Me. You need to spend time praising Me and worshiping Me away from these times together at church. If you will do this, it is through that worship that I will be able to release into you strength that will sustain you. I will be able to release into you a joy that will lift you up; I will be able to release into you a peace that will cause you to transcend all levels of problems that you face.

I say to you this night, worship Me, rise above the problems that you have been facing and fighting and experience the joy, the peace, and the strength that only I can give you, says the Lord.

The Spiritual Change First

There are many of you that are looking for results on the outside and you're looking for the manifestation of many things; the manifestation of promises that I have made. But I would have you know that those manifestations are in the works. Things that you've hoped for, things that you've desired to see, they are in the works. But know this, I always begin this work in the spirit before you see the manifestation in the natural. Revival is always a work in the spirit before it manifests in the natural

And so the key for you is to continue to grow in Me, conforming to the image of My Son, allowing Me to do that work in you that needs to be completed, that work that needs to be done. Allow Me to continue to do this on the inside of you so that I can build up in you a spiritual fortress, a spiritual house, that can contain My glory and to be a place wherein I can reside in the fullness of My majesty. As you do that, you will begin to see the manifestation of the things that I have promised take place in the realm of the natural.

Do not let yourself become discouraged. Do not feel like dropping your hands and quitting. Do not feel like turning your back. Do not feel like stopping. Do not feel like sitting down and calling this a time of rest; for I say to you, this is not a time of rest, this is a time of action. This is time to move forward in Me. Allow Me to work this work in you spiritually and I will, through you, bring forth the manifestation in the natural, says the Lord.

PD071021B – Oct 21, 2007 Friendships

In the days to come, your relationship with Me is going to be challenged, and in some cases, it will be severely challenged. It's not that you're going to be challenged to turn away from Me, but you are going to be challenged to choose Me over those around you. For many of you are going to lose friendships in the near future; those that you've fellowshiped with, those that you've loved, those that you've enjoyed being with are going to be turning their backs on you. Do not look for anger and strife but look for a division in unity. What I mean is that there are those that have reached a place in their life where they are choosing to go no further in their walk with Me. As you choose to go further, this friendship will come to an end as you know it.

But do not be disappointed, do not cry, do not be discouraged; for you see, as you grow deeper into Me, you are going to find others who are seeking Me just as you. The friendships that are developed out of that deeper relationship with Me will be stronger and stronger friendships. For you see, there are those in My Body who are looking for people like you. They're growing, they are developing, and they are going further in their relationship with Me and they are looking for people like you who also are going deeper in their relationship with Me. Those friendships will be stronger because they will be based on a strong, strong fellowship with Me.

So prepare yourself now for these things to come to pass. In some cases, I need to remove people from your life because of the impact they are having on you. In some cases, you must separate yourself, but you are not to stop loving and you are not to close your arms to them. You are to be ready and willing to receive them for the day that they choose to come back and begin walking deeper into Me again.

So prepare yourself for this now. Begin to seek Me and spend time in fellowship with Me, especially in your worship, to prepare your emotions for these days. But know this, I will be with you and I will be the friend that sticks closer than a brother.

PD071021C – Oct 21, 2007

Overcoming Loneliness

I will be your comfort in loneliness. I will be your sustainer and I will be your peace. I will be the fulfilling presence that you need in your life. Nobody will be able to fulfill you that way that I can fulfill you. No one will ever be able to touch your life the way that I can touch your life. So look to Me and I will help you and you will not face the devastating loneliness that at times you have felt.

PD071028 – Oct 28, 2007

Worship's Battle Cry

(What I saw in the spirit, there were devils and they were whispering to people during the worship: "You don't want to do this. You don't feel like doing this. You're uncomfortable doing this. You don't really want to lift your hands. You don't want to enter into this worship the way that others are doing. You really don't want to do this." It was a whisper, it wasn't a shout, it was a whisper.

I saw people responding, particularly in the free worship; they didn't want to, they didn't want to enter in. They were yielding over to that voice, but they didn't recognize that they were actually hearing another voice, that they were succumbing to that influence. This is why many people aren't yielding to the spirit - to their spirit - that truly wants to worship the Lord.

One of the reasons that these devils do this is because of what worship produces in the life of a Believer. The Lord says...)

Your worship is as a battle cry in the realm of the spirit. Your worship is like a war cry and it resonates through the camp of the enemy. For when you begin to lift up your voice and you begin to praise and you begin to worship, yes, even when you begin to shout your praise and your worship unto Me, it echoes throughout the camp of the enemy as a battle cry. It brings terror to the camp of the enemy, for the enemy cannot stop a people whose heart is turned unto Me in praise and worship.

The enemy realizes that when a shout of victory goes forth, My presence is there in the midst, and this is why he fights so hard to keep you from praising and worshipping, to keep you from lifting your hands, and to keep you from singing in the spirit and with the understanding; to keep you from raising your voice during times of worship. It's why he wants you to feel uncomfortable and self conscious and tired that you don't want to do this. It's why he wants to take Christians into churches that will not worship Me; for if he cannot keep them out of church, he wants to put them in churches that will not take them any further beyond their born again experience.

So I say to you that your worship, it is powerful and it is mighty in the realm of the spirit. That it does bring terror to the hearts of the enemy. And I say to you this day, do not give heed to those feelings, those thoughts of not wanting to do this. Do not believe those thoughts that you are tired, that you don't need to do this. For I say unto you that there are many battles that you could avoid in your life if you would simply raise your voice and praise Me and worship Me. There are many attacks of the enemy that could have been turned back if you had just worshiped Me and praised Me and lifted up your voice and sounded that battle cry into the camp of the enemy.

But I tell you this day, if you will begin to do this, there are many things that are happening in your life, many attacks of the enemy, that are going to be stopped, they are going to be turned around and he is going to be driven out of your life and out of your circumstances if you will raise your voice and praise Me, says the Lord.

PD071104A – Nov 4, 2007
The Still, Small Voice

I have said in My Word be still and know that I am God. I have said in My Word that you can hear Me in the still small voice. It's at times like these when you have an excellent opportunity to hear Me. You see, you have been trained by this world and even by many of My churches to inundate yourself with sensory stimulation. Many of My children find it extremely difficult to just sit in My presence. For many of you have found that when you try to just sit in My presence, the mind begins to race and begins to wander and thoughts of many other things begin to dominate and try to take control, and you experience frustration.

You sing a song that you will enter My gates with thanksgiving and into My courts with praise. I would say to you that if you will enter My presence with worship, not worship from your mind but worship from your heart, and focus intensely on what you are singing and what you are saying in this worship, you do not need the music, you do not need your recordings, just you; and focus so very intensely what you are saying and singing in your worship, it will begin to quiet your mind. In this way you can begin to train your mind to remain focused on Me during those quiet times. You will learn how to cast down the imaginations and every high thing that tries to exalt itself against the knowledge of Me.

You see, there are times when I want you to come to Me and to just sit in silence in My presence. I do not want you to worship. I do not want you to pray. I do not want you to read your Bible. I just want you to sit with Me; I want you to experience My presence. If you will do this you will begin to hear Me speak to you; you will begin to hear that still small voice on the inside. But this is going to take practice because you have been so conditioned to require something to capture your senses. But there are times when I want your undivided attention.

Many of you have sought Me, cried unto Me for answers. Many of you have wondered why I haven't been moving and haven't been speaking to you in your lives. What I'm saying to you today will help you learn to hear Me and to hear Me very clearly. I'm not saying that you do not need to worship or pray or spend time in My Word. What I'm saying is that there are times when you need to be alone with Me. For some of you, it would help if you would do this in a room with all the lights turned out and just sit in My presence. Enter in with worship and then begin to just sit in My presence and let Me touch you. Let Me speak to you. Let Me minister to you in a very special and unique way.

Again, this will take some practice; it will take some effort on your part. I tell you that if you will begin to do this, you will begin to experience Me in ways that you have desired. You will know Me and you will know Me as your Father, as your Savior, as your best friend, as your all-in-all. The more that you do this, the more you will come out of those times of intimacy with Me feeling as though that you are carrying My presence with you. So do this, learn to spend time all alone with Me, times of quietness to hear My voice, and you will hear Me, says the Lord.

PD071104B – Nov 4, 2007
Greater Glory

I have many vessels who are preparing themselves to be habitations of new levels of My glory. In those vessels scattered throughout this world, My glory is going to increase and increase within them. Then there is coming a time when that glory is going to be released in such ways that you've never known. I say I'm looking for more and more vessels that will prepare themselves to be these habitations of My glory, for I will release this glory into you. Turn your eyes away from the things of this world. Become more focused upon Me; for there too many of you that are so focused on the temporal things of this world and they have taken a place of great meaning and value in your life.

I say to you, let those things decrease; stop placing so much value on these other things. Start placing more value on knowing Me and being filled with My glory. I will pour Myself through you. My glory released through you will begin to draw your friends and your family members to the cross of My Son, Jesus Christ. You need to do this, for this is a good thing and it will enable Me to move in a greater measure. Do not take lightly these things that you are doing to allow Me to build Myself up on the inside of you. You are not wasting your time, for you are indeed preparing a habitation for My greater glory, says the Lord.

PD071104C – Nov 4, 2007
Godly Relationships

There are those of you who have felt betrayed, betrayed by friends and family members. At times you feel as though your heart has been broken because of what they've done to you, because what they have said. You need to understand that when it comes to your family members that you feel have betrayed you, you have a greater family, it is My family.

Many of you have based your relationships on a soulish connection. But when relationships are founded upon a true spiritual connection, there will not be that kind of betrayal and that kind of hurt. For you see, those who base the relationships on a spiritual bond will not seek to hurt or to do harm; they will only seek for the good of their friends.

Many of you have opened yourselves up to hurt and disappointment and these feelings of betrayal because you've looked into the realm of the soul for the strength of the relationship. This is natural in the world because you see, in the world, that's all they have is to base a relationship on what the soul can offer. In My Kingdom, relationships are based upon the spirit.

I say unto you, those who have hurt you, those that you feel have betrayed you and let you down, please let it go. Turn it loose. Turn your eyes to Me, for I have never hurt you and I have never betrayed you and I have never let you down. And know this, I have never sent anyone into your life for the purpose of hurting you or betraying you. When I send people into your life it is for them to edify you and to strengthen you according to that which I am doing in them and that they allow to flow through them. When you base your relationships first upon your spiritual bond with Me you will learn how to guard your heart against those feelings of great hurt, disappointment and betrayal.

Do not establish relationships on a soulish connection, but establish them first and foremost on a spiritual connection. Your brothers and sisters in Christ do not all understand this; for many relationships within My family have been destroyed because those relationships have been based upon a soulish connection. Even to this day there are many people living with hurt and unforgiveness because of what happened in a relationship based upon the soul. But when a relationship is based upon the spirit, upon My life in you, you will not take offense over what others do. You will not take offense over what they don't, do. You will walk in love.

But hear Me this night, there those of you that have lost friendships, people that you felt were so dear to you, people that you had trusted. Now you feel like it's over. In some cases, you're right, it is over. However, it is My plan to bring into your life others who will replace them and will be stronger in their walk with Me and therefore stronger in their walk with you. So get your eyes off the actions of others and cast your eyes completely and totally upon me and let Me guide and direct your paths, and I will bring into your life those who will strengthen you, who will edify you, and will truly be a friend to you; the kind of friends that I desire.

PD071107 – Nov 7, 2007
Word Concerning the 2008 Elections

I would say unto you that in the days to come you must guard your heart like you have never guarded your heart before. You must watch very, very closely at what is happening in your nation. I am trying very hard to raise up the one whom you should vote for as president. However, a spirit of confusion has been released within your camp; a spirit of confusion has been released within My Church.

Watch very, very closely in the days to come, for there are Christian leaders who are going to begin to stand up and give their endorsement to those whom I have not set in place. You are going to hear the voices of [Christian] leaders in this nation begin to point to this one and to point to that one. And because of this, there are many in the Body of Christ who are going to listen to the voice of the leaders instead of the voice of My Spirit.

It is extremely critical for you to listen to Me, for there are those of you, even in this room, who in the past have voted by your feelings and not by My leadership. If this happens again in this nation, the wrong person is going to be elected, and there is going to be a wall constructed to what I will be able to do. Because, you see, if My children listen to the voice of their leaders as opposed to My voice, and they vote for the ones who the leaders are endorsing instead of the one whom I would endorse and raise up, it is a process of them hardening their hearts to what I would do and to what I would say.

It is extremely critical that you look beyond the issues and listen to Me. It is not wrong to be concerned about what is happening in this country, but it is wrong if you allow your concerns to dictate your course of action. I will tell you what to do.

For you see, even in the Old Testament I sent a prophet to speak to My nation Israel to tell them to submit and go to Babylon. But there were those who said no. There were voices among the people who said “This is wrong; we will not do this. God will give us the victory.” But, you see, it was their sin that had brought all of this about. And in the end, there were those who lost their lives because of their rebellion to Me.

And again I say unto you, listen closely to My voice and I will tell you who to vote for. There are those in My Body who have not yet heard the name of the individual that I am raising up. And there are those who have heard his name, and yet they have not given attention because his name is not prominent among the candidates that are running.

But have I not said in My Word that I can raise one up and put another down? So listen closely to Me and be warned that in the days to come there are those in leadership in the Body of Christ who are going to begin to name the names of candidates that I do not want you to vote for. If you listen to them instead of Me, My hands are clean of this matter, for I cannot violate your will.

So begin to seek Me, begin to ask Me to open your eyes and your ears so that you hear and see the one that you are to vote for. For I tell you this night, there is a candidate that is godly, and there is a candidate who will stand up for those things that I have decreed in My Word. And there is a candidate that will not back down. But you must listen to Me and I will take you to that individual.

So this vote that you will cast a year from now is critical. And over the next year I am going to be doing everything I can to prepare My Church for this vote. And those who hear Me will be voting in the way that I would have them vote.

And I tell you this night, that if those who have been washed in the blood of My Son Jesus will vote in the way that I tell them to vote, this country will not be handed over to the hands of the enemy. The righteous will rule, and you will see righteousness raise up in this nation. So seek Me and ask Me, and I will guide you and I will direct you, and I will even lead you to vote for those at all levels of government, and you will see My will fulfilled.

God Loves You

There are those of you here who at times have doubted My love. But I want you to know that I love you. Things have happened in your families and relationships (and) you have wondered if I really do love you. But I want you to know that I do love you. Many things have happened that you didn't understand because I cannot violate the will of others. People have made some very wrong choices. But that does not mean that I have stopped loving you. For you see, one of the hardest things for people to do is to understand My love because they all too often equate it with the kind of love they are used to in this world. But My love transcends this world and this is something that you must understand. I do love you and I will not demonstrate My love to you the way the world defines a demonstration of love. But I will demonstrate My love to you in a way that is eternal. This is something that the world cannot do. So look to Me and trust Me, trust Me I say. Call upon Me and I will demonstrate My love to you in a way that you have not known.

Seeking Peace

The peace that you feel is so absent from your life, the peace that you want to replace turmoil, that peace is only found in My presence. You have been walking with a lack of peace because you've been trying so hard to work things out. While your intentions have been good, you have missed the real source of the peace that you are seeking. I say to you that if you will diligently step into My throne room and come into My presence, you are going to find the peace that has been absent for so long in your life. And know this, that My peace does not change the circumstances, but it strengthens you to go through them. That is what you need. You need the strength of My peace to get you through these times that you are facing. I speak to you and tell you, come into My presence. Let Me bathe you with My glorious peace. Let Me fill you with this peace. If you will, you will see your circumstances in a whole different light and your life will be so much easier. So come to Me and receive the peace that only I can give.

Praying for Your Husband

The Lord says that He has heard your cries and your prayers concerning your husband. He says, I'm moving in your husband's life as much as he will allow me. I have given your husband revelations of Me and of My truth, but he is struggling against these things, in part, because of stubbornness and pride. Be encouraged. So continue to pray and I will continue to move to work in his life. I say to you all is not lost; there is still hope, so keep praying.

PD071202C – Dec 2, 2007
Expand Your Tent

I told My children that they had dwelt too long in that place, that it was time for them to expand their tents. In the natural to expand your tent it means to expand your dwelling place; it means to expand the sphere of your influence; it means to expand the territory of your authority. In the realm of the spirit the same is true. It is possible for you to dwell too long in one place. I say unto you as you praise Me, as you worship Me, as you speak My Word and confess My truth, you are expanding your spiritual tent. You are moving out and you are claiming territory for My Kingdom. You are increasing the realm and the territory of your authority and influence. You are driving the enemy back and you are taking possession of that which is yours in My Kingdom.

I say to you, just as I gave those instructions to My children and not to just one individual, I give these instructions to you as a congregation. It is you, the people, who must extend the perimeter of your spiritual dwelling place. As you do My glory will go forth. As you do, you will be increasing the territory of your authority and influence in the realm of the spirit. For you see, the battle takes place first in the realm of the spirit before the victory manifests in the realm of the natural. You cannot win this, and you cannot expand your spiritual tent with natural means, and yet this is what many churches are doing; they are serving their communities, but they are not serving Me. They are touching the people in their communities, but they are not touching Me.

But when you come into My presence as you have this night through your worship, you are expanding your spiritual tent. I say to you that this is something that you must do because the more that you do this, the more you are establishing a campground for My glory and revival. So be encouraged in this. For such a thing is not the responsibility of one individual as the pastor, but it is the responsibility of the congregation. Just like it was the responsibility of the nation of Israel to expand their tent, it is your responsibility as a part of My holy nation to expand your spiritual tent. So do this and continue to take ground; do not back off. I will be there with you and I will share My strength and My anointing with you and you will rise up victorious and you will claim much for My Kingdom, says the Lord.

PD071202D – Dec 2, 2007
God Will Speak

The Lord says that He wants to speak through each of you and that it's very important for you to spend time with Him and to listen to His voice and write down what He gives you. He says,

For in My Word I have declared that you know in part and you prophesy in part. Do not fall into the trap of leaning on one individual who hears Me and speaks what I say. I desire speak through all of you. You are all my children and I love you all the same. Spend time with Me and be prepared to receive from My heart as I speak to you things I want you to know and things I want you to document. Learn to hear from Me. Learn to receive from Me because I will give to all of you things that I want My Body to know.

PD071202E – Dec 2, 2007
Repent and Prepare for Revival

I am coming; My Church is releasing Me to come. My Church is releasing Me through their worship and their prayers and their confessions. They are releasing My glory through their worship and through their prayers and their confessions.

I am coming; through you I am coming. I am repulsed by the actions and behavior of so many of your leaders. When they step into a position of governmental leadership, no matter what the level, they are supposed to uphold the oaths made to Me by those who first stepped foot on this land and gave it to Me.

I am holding accountable all the leaders who have broken that oath. Were it not for My mercy and grace, judgment like that in the Old Testament would already have fallen on many of them. But know this: I have not turned my back on this nation. I am watching all that is happening.

In the next few months, I will be removing some of the candidates running for president. Though their names may still be discussed, I will have removed them from contention. You must pray and keep praying. You must continue to release Me through your prayers, worship, and confessions. If you do, I will continue to expose the plans of the enemy. I will continue to confound the camp of the enemy. I will continue to release confusion into their camps just as I did to the camps of the enemy when they rose against Jehoshaphat.

I am holding My Church accountable for their spiritual slumber. They are looking to Me for unbridled blessings, but they do not want to be held accountable for their lifestyles, and they do not want the responsibility of being the vessels through which I move. Too many are living a life of leisure and comfort. They are fulfilling a religious duty that they have developed for themselves, but they are not accepting the responsibility to enlarge the tent of their spiritual man; they are not growing to become vessels of honor.

You are spending Kingdom money on earthly pleasures. You are overspending for yourself and neglecting your Kingdom responsibilities. You are following the pattern of Solomon, who spent almost twice as long building his own house as he did building My temple. You believe that any financial increase in your life is yours to spend as you please.

I would have you know that because of this self-centered approach, there are those in My Church who are going to experience great financial hardship. Some will lose jobs; some will file bankruptcy; some will lose nearly everything they have. They will blame the devil for this, and some will even blame Me, but it is their own doing. They have become lovers of self, this world, and its things, more than lovers of Me. Some will live in this financial hardship until they die or I return; they will never experience relief.

But some will repent and will be restored. I warn you now: you had better take a hard look at how you use your money, for I am judging every dollar. Do not declare that you love Me with all your heart and then turn around and use your money for your own gain. Too many insult My grace with their paltry offerings, acting as though they are doing Me a great favor; you bless the waitress who serves your food better than you bless My Kingdom.

Too many of you think with a worldly mindset and interpret My instructions with your own reasoning. Have I not said you are to be transformed by renewing your mind? Even as many of you hear this word, you are thinking that I expect each of you to give large sums of money. But do you not listen to My Word? Have I not said that your giving is according what a man has, not what he does not have?

Many of you in My Church demand financial accountability of your leaders. But why do you not demand the same accountability of yourselves? You expect pastors and heads of ministries to account for every dollar they receive, but are you prepared to account for every dollar I put in your hands? You are living by a double-standard. You expect them to be wise stewards of the money you give them, but should I not expect the same of you? You chastise many of them for what you call extravagant living, but proportionately, many of you are living more extravagantly.

You want me to act on those pastors and minister you believe have misappropriated funds, but have you examined your own house? Have you examined your own spending habits? Are you truly using your money with the wisdom you expect of ministers? Are you guilty of the same kind of misappropriation of funds, just at a lesser amount?

Just as I have said that judgment begins in My house, it is happening now and will increase. For the more that My judgment is released, those who see it happening are being given a warning to repent. You have seen Me judge the sin in the lives of your church leaders, and this will continue. I will also judge the sin in the lives of those in the seats of the churches, and some of you are going to be shocked at what I expose. I am telling you now, get the sin out of your life or face the shame of being exposed to the world.

Along with the sin, I am exposing the financial indiscretions of your pastors and ministers. I will judge the ways they have abused My Kingdom finances. But I will not stop with the leaders; I will judge you as well. For as you have passed judgment on them in your hearts and with your mouths concerning how they handle finances, I will now use your own words against you. You have spoken your own judgment. Just as you have spoken harshly against My anointed, the harshness of your own words will now work against you.

Many will hear these things and repent before they suffer. But many will ignore this warning and continue to exalt themselves as judges above My Word. Listen closely to Me: though many of My preachers have indeed misused the funds I sent to them, they are still called of Me and they are still My beloved. I will restore the ones who repent and judge the ones who will not.

But you must guard your heart, mind, and speech concerning them. Remember: Pharaoh spoke harshness against My children of Israel, and that harshness became the judgment on his own house and the people of his nation. Also, do not forget that you are taught to confess My Word for My promises to manifest. Do you not think that if you speak harshness and railing accusations against My called ones that it will not have an effect on your own lives? Meditate on My Word, not on the errors of others.

The collapse of a huge ministry is on the horizon. This does not have to happen, but there must be great repentance to avoid it, and that repentance is not currently in the heart of the leaders. I am shaking My Church to bring you face to face with your lack of concern for your own spiritual condition. You absolutely must take seriously the holiness I demand you walk in.

But just as I am dealing with the sin and compromise, I am also moving in preparation for revival. I am building a storehouse of glory to be released. I am preparing many people for this release. Revival is on the horizon; I can see it now.

Many of you have defined a revival as a release of My power for a great demonstration of signs, wonders, healings, and miracles, accompanied with a wave of souls being swept into My Kingdom. But this is only one part of revival. Search My Word; read the book of Acts. You will see that in every great move of My Spirit for signs and demonstrations of power which led to many salvations, there was also the preaching and teaching of My truth.

I grow ever so weary of the way you continually allow the purveyors of man's traditions to speak into your lives. I speak to you as your Father and as your God: separate yourself from teachers of error and do it now. I have told you I will lead you into green pastures, but you repeatedly allow yourselves to be led into pastures of dead grass, briars, thistles, and poisonous weeds.

You are dying on the inside from all of this filth. Just as you hear that good natural nutrition helps avoid cancer, I tell you that poor spiritual nutrition leads to spiritual cancer that will kill areas of your life. In some cases, it will lead to your literal death in this world. But so many of you persist in allowing error to be sown into your spirit. You are feasting on spiritual junk food, and it is destroying you.

I am your God and I do not care who your favorite preachers are. I tell you, search out those who only speak My truth and listen to them only. I tell you, cut the others off immediately, for they are doing you no good. I do not care if you have to turn your radios off and drive your cars in silence; for some of you, it will help you hear Me better.

If you do not stop feeding in the troughs of spiritual slop, you will not be fully prepared for revival. For when this revival hits, I am going to expect truth in all its glory to be fed to those touched by this revival. There is no wrong doctrine spoken in Heaven, so why would you want to listen to it on earth? What is so sad is that so many of My children simply do not think that wrong doctrine is that critical and that it really doesn't matter that much what preachers they listen to. Oh, how you are greatly deceived!

Would you like to see My glory revealed? Would you like to have your hands burning with the healing power of My anointing? Would you like to hear My voice as though I were standing next to you? Would you like to hear the worship of Heaven? Would you like to feel the glory of My Presence saturating your very being? Then seek Me. Trust Me when I tell you that these things are real and that I am making them available to you. Lay aside your own life and allow Mine to rise within you.

Come to Me and know Me, truly know Me as the God of mercy, grace, love, salvation, and provision. Come to Me and know Me as I reveal Myself to you. Come to Me and rest in My Presence and know the joy of My touch. Give everything of yourself to Me and discover how much of yourself still remains; discover how much you have not lost as I reveal how much I have stored up inside you. When you give everything of yourself to Me, the only thing you lose is that which stands between you and Me; I can then reveal the new man I have created in you, the one created of My righteousness and true holiness.

Come to Me and drink of the glorious rivers of spiritual life. Come to Me and eat of the fruit of My heavenly Vine. Come to Me and be washed in the waters of eternal refreshing, wherein lie strength and joy. Come to Me and hear My voice of comfort and strength, for when I speak, My voice carries My Presence and My life. Come to Me and know the God and Savior you have longed to know. You are My prized possession and the joy of My heart.

Exalting God

As you exalt Me, I will exalt you. Have I not said in My Word that those who are humble I will raise up and I will exalt in due time? For you see, if you're truly exalting Me from your heart, you're humbling yourself in order to do it. For to exalt Me means that you are putting Me above everything else in your life, that you see Me as being greater than anything or anyone, that you are submitting yourself to Me, submitting even your will and your decisions or choices to Me. As you exalt Me in this way, I will exalt you; I will exalt you deeper into My presence. I will exalt you deeper into my glory. I will exalt you deeper into an anointing, an anointing that will be life-changing, not just for you, but for others around you. So when you exalt Me know this, that I am working in the heart that is truly humbled to bring about My perfect will, says the Lord.

Healing's Completed Work

There are many in My church that are looking for healing, healing to manifest in their bodies. Many have struggled for years waiting for a healing to manifest. For many of you, you're looking for a work to be done that from My position has already been done. In Heaven there is no need of healing, for there is no sickness there is no pain. There is nothing wrong in Heaven. So here in Heaven there is no need for healing. My Son was sent to Earth to complete a work so that My will in Heaven could be done in Earth. This includes My will for your bodies to be healed. Notice, your bodies will not live forever in their current state because the corruption still exists. But you do not have to live daily in sickness and pain and distress. Yes, your bodies are going to age over time. They are going to slow down. As you get older you will not have the youth, the strength and vitality of someone in their 20s and 30s. This is a result of the corruption that was released in Genesis chapter three.

However, you can live in this life in this world in that body that you have free from devastating sickness crippling disease, suffering, pain. You can live free from this.

Look at your healing as a work that has already been completed. Don't ask for a work to be done that My Son did. Believe for a manifestation of a completed work; My will that is being done and exists in Heaven is to be done in your body. Approach healing from the perspective that My Son has already paid the price for every healing that your body will ever need.

Walking God's Path

You have been trying so hard to serve Me. You have been trying so hard to do what is right. And yet you wondered if you have been making the wrong decisions or the right decisions. You're just not sure. You have been walking a path that you think has been leading you deeper into your walk and relationship with Me, and in part it is. However, there have been a lot of distractions along the way. There have been times where you felt like that you have been tossed to and fro in your life and you wondered what's going on, but you want to experience a genuineness in My presence. You have been struggling at times to try and understand what I'm doing in your life.

Stop struggling so hard to experience Me so I can make myself known to you. You have been influenced by a lot of people in church over the years that had good intentions, but wrong information. They said things and spoke things to you about Me that were not true, but they truly believed those things. You are going to have to allow Me to work in you to bring about a paring away of a lot of that stuff. If you do, I will be able to help you. You are in a time of transition right now. Listen closely to Me. Let Me speak unto you, for I need to make some more moves in your life. I need to move you in ways that you have not expected. But if you let Me do this, I will be able to bring about My will in your life in a way that you haven't known. So trust Me, trust Me without struggling to trust Me. Thank Me every day for working My perfect will in your life and you will begin to see change, says the Lord.

Seeking for an Anointing

There are so many of My children who run to and fro looking to receive something from a man. I sit on My throne and I watch as they run from church to church and camp meeting to camp meeting, hoping that the minister will pay attention to them, lay hands on them, give them something special. I watch with broken heart because nowhere in My Word have I told you to seek after men. But I told you to seek after Me. For you see, the things they're looking for to receive from me, they can receive from Me. So many of them feel lost if they have no place to go, if there's no crusade taking place, that there's nothing going on. They'll travel for miles and miles and spend money hoping to receive that one special thing from the preacher; and here I am, the One who spoke to you and I said to you in My Word I would never leave you and I would never forsake you.

So I'm there for you at all times. And yes, it is appropriate for ministers to pray, and it is appropriate for hands to be laid on people, and I do move in that fashion. But so many have forgotten what I said in My Word that you can receive from Me by faith. So keep your eyes on Me and follow after those ministers who will point you to Me, who will teach you to receive from Me. The greatest outpouring of anointing and the greatest impartation of My glory will come from My hands upon you. So seek Me and receive from Me and receive from Me the fullness of what you are seeking, says the Lord.

Heaven Celebrates

Just as you gather together to celebrate My birth, and you celebrate it before the world, I would have you know that in Heaven we celebrate your birth. For doesn't My Word say there is rejoicing in the presence of angels when just one person comes to know Me as Lord and Savior? All the celebrating and singing that you do here. all the parties and times you get together for the purpose of celebrating My birth, I want you to know you that you haven't seen anything yet.

There is a celebration that goes on in heaven that far surpasses anything that has ever taken place on Earth in celebration of My birth. For you see, My birth helps make it possible for you to be born. My birth in this world helped make it possible for you to be born into My Kingdom. So you are excited and there's so much joy during those times when you celebrate My birth in this world. But in heaven there is a celebration the likes of which you have never seen when each of you comes to know Me as Lord and Savior. So know this, rejoice and enjoy these times of celebration. Enjoy these times when you get together to celebrate My birth. But in your heart look forward with an excitement and anticipation of the day that all of you are going to be gathered together in one place at one time to celebrate your life in Me, and that day is coming soon, says the Lord.

Change Takes Time

There many in My Body, some even in this church, who have wondered, "Why is there such deliberation at times for praise and worship? Why is there such an emphasis on all of this worship and emphasis on praying in the spirit? Why is this?" I want you to think about those times when you have fought physical battles and you have gone to your doctor and your doctor has prescribed for you medication. You begin to take that medication. At first you don't feel any different. At first you don't feel the effects of the medication. But as you continue to take that medicine, eventually, the purpose for that medicine begins to happen in your body. And given time, you begin to see the results of that medicine manifest in your life; you begin to feel better.

Likewise, when you worship Me what you are doing is releasing into your spirit a work that only I can do; a work that can only take place on a spiritual level. The same is true for you when you confess the Word, when you pray in the spirit, all of these things. They begin a work on the inside of you in the realm of spirit that at first you cannot see the results of, nor can you feel any difference. But as you continue to do this, the purpose for worship the purpose for the prayer, the purpose for the confession, begins to produce the change on the inside of you, and eventually you begin to see the results manifested on the outside in your life.

So remember this during those times when you begin to question the true effectiveness of worship and prayer and confession; when you begin to question the effectiveness of even fasting. For I have said in My Word that the change begins from the inside, then you begin to see the manifestation later on, on the outside. So again, I told you in My Word, do not be weary in well doing; for you will reap the benefits of your prayer of your worship of your confession and your fasting. The manifested change will take place.

God's Word in Us

Just as Mary received My Word and carried My Word in her for nine months before giving birth to My Son, when you receive My Son – My Word – you become a carrier of what that Word contains. For just as I sowed into Mary My Word to bring forth My Son, when you accept My Son as your Savior, I sow into you life and life more abundantly. I sow into you all that My Son represents. When you receive My Word of healing, that Word is sown into you; you become a carrier of that healing. You become a carrier of deliverance. You become a carrier of everything that My Word says. In a natural term, you become pregnant with My promises. But you must carry My promises to term.

Too many of My children have aborted My Word by stopping their prayers, their confessions, their worship (and) their fasting before giving birth to the promises that I've given to them. But I say unto you, if you will continue to nurture that which has been sewn on the inside of you, the day is coming when you will give birth, as it were, to your healing. You will give birth to deliverance. You will give birth in the natural to those things which have been sown into you in the spirit.

Look to Mary as an example of what I can do in your life. The more of My Word that you allow to be sown in you is the more of My Word you carry. In that natural sense you become very pregnant with all that I have offer. If you continue, the day will come, you will go through a birthing process. In the natural you will behold everything that I have said belongs to you. So look to My Word. Not only as that which you are to sow into your spirit but look to My Word as the example to follow. I am God. What I have said will come to pass for everyone who believes.

PD071230 – Dec 30, 2007
Blessings Supersede Calendars

In My Body there are many who will teach and preach and point to different things to encourage you in your walk with Me. Every year they take the numbers of the year and compare the numbers to something in My Word and declare that this is the year of blessing, this is the year of renewal, this is the year of Jubilee, this is the year of this and that and the other. They tell you that this is the year of new beginnings.

But I say unto you, the moment that you accept My Son Jesus as Lord and Savior is the moment that you have entered into a Kingdom that is not governed by a calendar. What this means is that every day of your life in My Kingdom can be the day of Jubilee, the day of new beginnings, the day of renewal. You don't have to wait for a year or a month or a season to experience Me. For if that were true, then that means that I would be holding back from you those things that have already been purchased for you by My Son.

So I say to you, do not get caught up in all of the preaching and teaching that will tell you that this is the year of this particular blessing and that particular move of Me. Don't get caught up in those who base what they believe I will do on a date on the calendar; for I say to you that I am the Alpha and the Omega, I am the beginning and the end, I am the God of your blessings and every day with Me is a day of blessing, a day of renewal and change, because I am your God, and I love you and I do not hold back from you. So enter into My presence and know what I can do in your life on a day-to-day basis, says the Lord.
